Dear Tim,

As you surmise, the plenum agreed with the Political Committee's recommendation to open up a literary discussion on Cuba and the world congress documents. We want to get the Cuba discussion started as soon as we can.

You're right, Shelley and Larry will submit their Oberlin reports. He will combine it with the plenum report so it's a single item without a lot of repetition. Neither will be making any major changes.

I'm enclosing a transcript of your plenum report. Please send it and your introduction to "The Postwar Social Overturns and Marxist Theory" back as fast as possible so we can get them in at the beginning of the discussion as you suggested.

Glad you had a chance to talk to Thornett while he was in town. As you know, I share your pessimism. Of all the currents that have had to make their decision on motion toward the FI, the Thornett current has remained the most sectarian. In many ways, it remains Healyism with an Oxford face. But if things don't work out, it won't be because we didn't make the political effort.

Comradely,

Jack
