To All Locals, Branches, and At-Large Members:

Dear Comrades,

As of Thursday morning the locals which had built the broadest sponsorship for demonstrations against the French witch-hunt were Philadelphia and Atlanta. In a 24-hour effort the Philadelphia comrades obtained the sponsorship of the following (partial list): Karen Ackerman, Temple U. DuBois; Ed Aguilar, SDS; Tony Avirgan, Resistance; Harold Bershad, U. of P. Dept. of Sociology; Charles Butterworth, Assist. Ed., Catholic Worker; Judy Chomsky, Resistance; Bob Davis, Chairman, Franklin & Marshall College Peace Comm.; Abraham Egnal, Coordinator, Phila. Mobilization Committee; Al Feigenberg, Columbia Strike Steering Comm., Dell Hymes, U. of P. Dept. of Anthropology; Ruth Krause, So. Jersey Women Strike for Peace; Milton Lesnik, U. of P. Reading Clinic; Phillip Pochoda, Chairman, U. of P. Faculty Committee on Problems of War and Peace; Arthur Shostak, Drexel Institute of Technology faculty; Mike Williams, U. of P. Society of African and Afro-American Students; Harold Feldman, Veterans for Peace in Vietnam; Bernard Ivens, Teachers for Peace; Kenneth Smith, leader of Phila. Ethical Society, David Marshall, St. Joseph's College, Professor of Philosophy, Univ. Council on Problems of War and Peace; Rev. David Gracie; Stewart Meachem, American Friends Service Committee.

The Atlanta comrades have lined up sponsors from virtually every possible organization there. Sponsors include Cliff Conner, Atlantans for Peace; Atlanta Workshop in Non-Violence; Gene Guerrero, Jr., Southern Student Organizing Committee; Howard Romaine, National Student Association; Charles Webstur, Atlanta Alliance for Peace; and Jerry Sullivan, Committee on Social Issues, Georgia State College.

Comradely,

Charlie Bolduc
