varching Orders for Trade Union Leaders!

Founded and Edited by

FOR INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM.

SYLVIA PANKHURST

VOL. VIII. No. 19.

SATURDAY, JULY 23RD, 1921.

[WEEKLY.] PRICE TWOPENCE.

CRAINQUEBILLE.

III.

rainquebille before the Magistrate.

President Bourriche consecrated fully six minutes the examination of Crainquebille. This examinawould have shed more light if the accused had plied to the questions put to him, but Crainquebille vas not accustomed to discussion, and in such a mpany respect and fear kept his mouth closed. perefere he remained silent, and the magistrate uself made the responses.

He concluded: - In short you admit having said "Mort aux

- I said " Mort aux vaches !" because the officer d " Mort aux vaches !" Therefore, I said " Mort

He wished to make it known that, astonished by is most unexpected imputation, he had repeated his stupifaction the strong words that were falsely tributed to him and which he had certainly not ronounced. He had said: "Mort aux vaches!" nearing to say: "I make an insulting remark? How fould you think it?" The magistrate, Mr. Bourriche, did not take Crainebille's explanation like that.

- So you pretend, he said, that the officer was e first to say it?

Crainquebille renounced further explanations. It s teo difficult.

You do not insist. You are right not to do so, nd the president.

He called for the witnesses.

Officer 64, whose name was Bastien Matra, swore tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but e truth. Then he testified in these terms:

- Being on duty the 20th of October, at midday, saw in the Rue Montmatre, an individual who seemed to me an itinerant hawker, and who kept is barrow standing unduly opposite to No. 328, which occasioned a congestion of traffic. I gave him the order to move on three times, and he refused to obey. When I notified him that I was going to port him, he answered me by shouting, "Mort mux vaches!" which I regarded as an insult.

This firm and measured testimony was heard by the Court with evident favour. The defence had called Madam Bayard, shoemaker, and Mr. David Matthieu, physician-in-chief of the Ambroise-Paré Hospital and Officer of the Legion of Honour. Madam Bayard had seen and heard nothing. Mr. Matthieu had been in the crowd gathered round the fficer who summoned the hawker to move on. His testimony caused a sensation.

- I was witness of the scene, said he, I observed hat the officer was mistaken: he had not been insulted. I approached him and made this observaion to him. The officer retained the hawker under arrest, and invited me to follow him to the police station. I did so, and repeated my declaration before he sergeant-in-charge there.

- You may be scated, said the president. Usher, ecall the witness Matra. - Matra, when you were arresting the accused, did Dr. Matthieu observe to on that you were mistaken?

- I should say, your worship, that he insulted me. What did he say?

- He said: " Mort aux vaches!"

A whispering and the sound of laughter arose in he public seats. - You can withdraw, said the magistrate, hastily.

And he warned the public that if these indecent unifestations were repeated, he would have the our cleared. Meanwhile, counsel for the defence tumphantly shook the sleeves of his gown. It was elieved at the moment that Crainquebille would e acquitted.

Quiet was established. Mr. Lelmerle rosc. He mmenced his speech for the defence by a eulogy the police force, "those servants of society who r a paltry twage endure long hours of work and ace incessant dangers, and practice daily heroisms. ey have been soldiers, they remain soldiers.

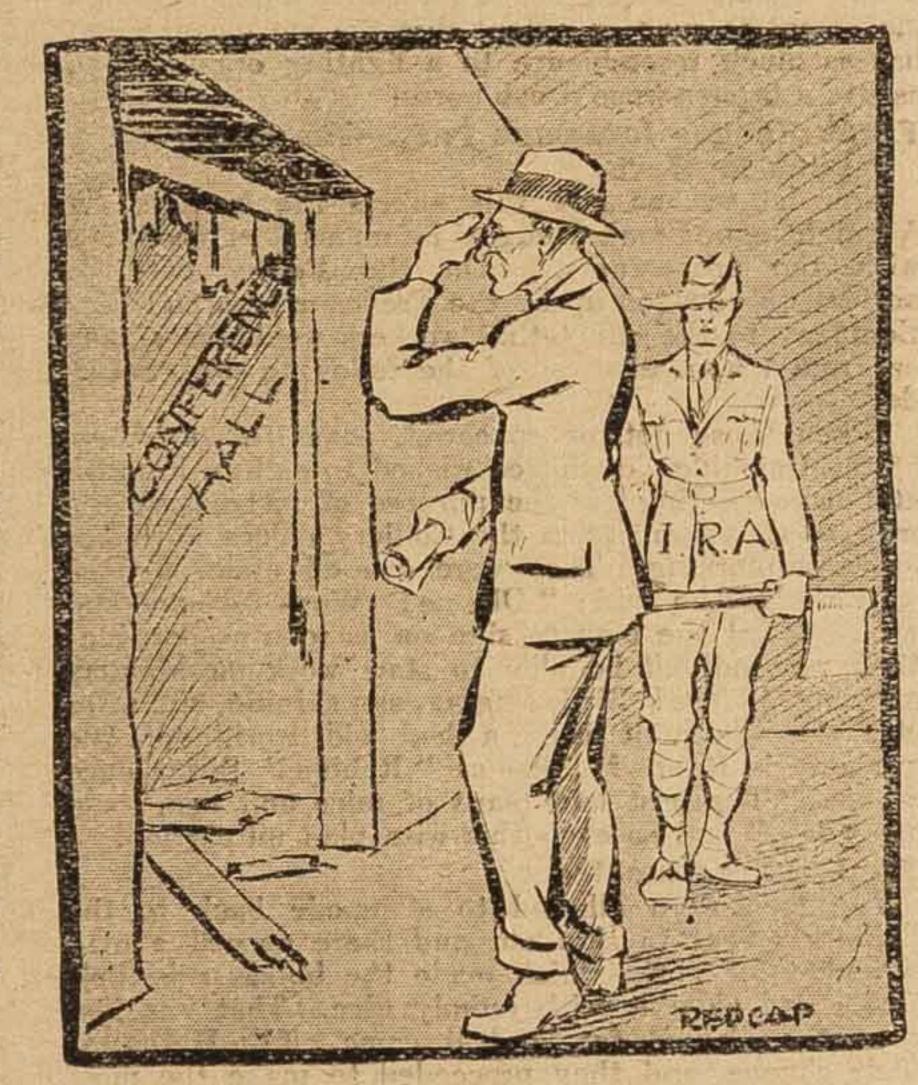

coldiers, this word says all . . . " Mr. Lemerle raised himself without effort to an falted discussion of military virtues. He was he of those, he said, who "will not permit anyone speak against the Army, the national Army to hich he was "proud to belong." The President bowed assent.

Mr. Lemerle was, in fact, Lieutenant in the serve. He was also Nationalist Candidate in the speak too fast? leilles-Handriettes division.

He continued:

A Proletarian Story.

BY FORCE THEY DID IT.

- No, indeed, I do not mis epresent the modest and precious services that are rendered daily by these guardians of the peace and of the gullant population of Paris. I should not bave consented, Sir, to lay before you Crainquebille's defence if I had seen in him the insulter of an old soldier. My client is accused of saying: " Mort aux va hes !" There is no doubt about the meaning of that phrase. If you turn to the pages of the dictionary of slang you will read there: "Vachard, lazy malingerer, which means lazy as a cow instead of working. -Cow, one who sells himself to the police; police spy. The expression, "Mort aux vaches," is used amongst certain people. But the whole question is this: How has Crainquebille used it? And even more, has he used it? Permit me, Sir, to doubt it.

I do not suspect Constable Matra of a single malicious thought. But he accomplishes, as we have agreed, a difficult duty. He is sometimes tired, wearied, overworked. On that account he might have had a sort of hallucination of the hearing. And when he tells you, Sir, that Dr. David Matthieu. Officer of the Legion of Honour, physician-in-chief to the Ambroise-Paré Hospital, a prince of science and a man of the world, has shouted: "Mort aux vaches!" we are absolutely forced to recognise that Matra is a prey to the malady of obsession, and if the term is not too strong to a frenzy of persecution.

word, in his mouth, presents the character of a misdemeanour. Crainquebille is the illegitimate child of an itinerant hawker degraded by misconduct and drink; he was born alcoholic. You see him brutalised by sixty years of misery. Sir, you will decide that he is "not responsible."

Mr. Lemerle seated himself, and the magistrate, Mr. Bourriche, read between his teeth a sentence which condemned Jerome Crainquebille to a fortnight's imprisonment and a fine of fifty francs. The Bench had based its conviction on the testimony of Constable Matra. Lead through the long dark passages of the Court Crainquebille felt an immense need of sympathy. He turned towards the city policeman who conducted him and called him three times:

- Bobby, bobby; hi, Bobby!

He sighed: - If one had told me a fortnight ago that what has happened to me would happen . . . !

Then he made this observation: - They speak too fast, these gentlemen. They speak well, but they speak too fast. One cannot explain things to them. Bobby, don't you think they

But the officer walked on without response, and did not even turn his head.

By ANATOLE FRANCE.

Crainquebille asked him:

- Why don't you answer me? The officer remained silent, and Crainquebille said to him bitterly: - One speaks even to a dog. Why don't you speak to me? You never open your mouth. Are you afraid that it stinks?

Apology for President Bourriche.

Some curious people and two or three barristers quitted the Court after the sentence had been announced, and the clerk was already calling another case. Those who left did not speak of the Crainquebille case, which had not interested them in the least, and of which they thought no more. Only Mr. Jean Lermite, the engraver, who had come to Paris by chance, meditated on what he had heard and seen.

He passed his arm round the shoulders of the barrister, Mr. Joseph Aubassée: - What Magistrate Bourriche must be praised for, said he, is that he has known how to protect himself from the vain curiosity of the mind and to guard himself from the intellectual pride that wishes to know all. Had he compared the contradictory testimony of Constable Matra and Dr. Matthieu, the magistrate would have entered a path where nothing but doubt and uncertainty were to be met. The method which consists in examining the facts according to the laws of criticism is irreconcileable with the proper administration of justice. If a magistrate were imprudent enough to follow such a method his judgments would depend upon his personal sagacity, which is generally small and upon human fallibelity which is perpetual. What would become of authority? One cannot deny that the historic method is altogether incapable of assuring to him the certainties he needs. It suffices to recall the adventure of Walter Raleigh.

"One day that Walter Raleigh, during his imprisonment in the Tower of London, was working according to his custom at the second part of his History of the World, a quarrel broke out under his window. He went to look at the people who were quarrelling, and when he returned to his work, he thought he had observed what passed very thoroughly. But the following day, having spoken of the affair to one of his friends, who had been present and had even taken part in the row, he was contradicted by this friend on every point. Reflecting, therefore, on the difficulty of recognising the truth in distant events, when it had been possible for him to be mistaken on what happened under his eyes, he threw the manuscript of his history in the fire.

"If the judges had the same scruples as Sir Walter Raleigh they would throw into the fire all the evidence before them. They have no right to do that. It would be a denial of justice and a crime on their part. It is necessary to renounce knowledge, but one must not renounce judgment. Some people wish that the sentences of the Courts should be founded on methodical researches, but facts are dangerous sophists and perfidious enemies of civil and military justice. Mr. Bourniche has too judicial a spirit to Moreover, even if Crainquebille had cried: "Mort make his sentences depend on reason and on science, aux raches!" it is necessary to know whether this the conclusions of which are the subject of eternal dispute. He founds his sentences on dogmas and enthrones them on tradition, so that his judgments equal in authority the commandments of the church. His sentences are canonic. I hear him draw from them a certain number of sacred canons. Notice, for example, that he classes the testimony, not according to the uncertain and misleading characteristics of human truth, but according to intrinsic, permanent and manifest characteristics. He weighs them according to the weight of the weapons. Is there anything at once more simple and more wise? He holds as irrefutable the testimony of a guardian of the peace, whose humanity has been made an abstraction, and

YOUR SUBSCRIPTION.

A blue mark in this space indicates that your subscription is now due.

Increased Postal rates and the high cost of production of the paper necessitate prompt payment.

SOUTH WALES NOTES

Indignation has at present been turned against the Throughout the district we are snowed under

"It is an ill wind that blows nobody good." brains in the Trade and Labour Counci"! This attitude towards the worker may help to dispel the old idea held by some of the rank and file, and by many of our labour leaders, that the interests of Labour and Capital are identical, and may bring the realities of the class struggle home to the individual worker.

week Vernon Hartshorn, M.P., after a rather heated has as much resemblance to a fighting organisation, discussion, was nominated for the position of Trea- as has a broken-knee'd cab-horse. surer for the S.W.M.F., a position rendered vacant Frank Hodges Infamous Pact.-The Stampede by the death of Mr. Alfred Onions. Hartshorn intimated that he would like Mr. Evan Williams (Sub- Now let us see how this affects the workers. the position of the miners at the present day. This day.

He also mentioned that the owners wanted to reduce the wages of the cokemen by 5s. per day, men to stay away from the Colliery offices until the Pit Committees, in the interests of the unemploy their contention being that the cokemen did not come in for a share of the £10,000,000.

We have, of course, an "unemployed" Committee here, which we took some trouble to inaugurate, as all the old local wiseheads and Trade Union officials were out against anything of so revolutionary a character; but of course we won. What happened

George Davies behind the Times.

We have in this valley a working class much divided against itself. The old "die-hards" and "blow-hards" are still out busily preaching orthodoxy." The small, but energetic party of hands and chuckle with unboly given. The small, but energetic party of hands and chuckle with unboly given. The small have no other backing save sheer pluck. Money is of no utility to persons pessessing the hands and chuckle with unboly given. The State-stamped tokens can be taken abroad having the state of foreign owners in rebels is making the best of every opportunity to what they hoped for, and it came off! Here was angry men, and on that factor I am relying for spread the doctrines of "Divine Discontent," and their chance, and they proceeded to make the most keeping them in line. now, if ever, is the time for us to propagate these of it.

Snowed under by the Big-Wigs.

colliery officials for the high-handed manner adopted "Labour" Councillors, "Labour" Guardians, by some of them towards the workmen. Some "Labour" Trade Union officials, and even "Labour colliery officials say they have the whip now and bourgeoisie, who have formed unto themselves a to be taken to organise those who were not working intend to use it. If they continue to do as they "Labour group," and thereby claimed affiliation to "Well, really, you know, we haven't considered the have begun there is likely to be more "trouble in the Trades and "Labour" Council, to which body yet," we were told; "but we will get you on to the my native land." The human worker, like his fellow they were admitted (after a struggle put up by the worker the ass, is patient and long suffering, but few rebels we have here), on the plea, advanced for The Officials do nothing. may give a masty kick sometimes when least expected. them by one of the old froth-consumers, that we want

We quite agree with the speaker, and he himself made the fact clearly apparent in his own case, by his assumption that importing the leading profiteers of the town would be synonymous with importing "brains." He evidently was speaking about an unknown quanticy. But we are hedged about with people I'ke him in our Trade Union meetings. They are riding on the At a meeting of the Caeran Colliery Lodge last movement to such an extent that the movement itself back to Work. Agent) to be his successor on the S.W. Executive if fortnight ago, Frank Hodges' infamous pact was made he obtained the position of Treasurer. He also with the coal-owners. On the Friday evening, deplored the philosophy of a certain section of notices were posted up by the Tredegar Iron and Coal members who want the leaders to be "nothing but Company to the effect that workers would be signed advisors." This section was responsible, he said, for on from 7 a.m. onwards of the following day, Satur> of the Combine Committee wished to call an immediate mass meeting for the purpose of instructing the mittee of ten was selected to act in conjunction wi Monday morning. They were snowed under by the we want and of its own making. we must get the men to sign on as soon as possible; then we shall all be able to start work on Monday morning." Yes! Birds singing, sun shining, and after all, you know, it isn't a bad old world for the workers, is it now? But as "Rabbie" Burns once wrote: "The best laid plans of mice and men gang aft agley," and so even this wise plan miscarried.

> The Bosses Chuckled. The men were allowed to stampede back to the Meantime, we have a great fight before us, in Colliery offices to sign on, and there ensued a mad which we have no other backing save sheer pluck.
>
> Second block of the backing save sheer pluck.
>
> Money is of no utility to persons pessessing the owned by the few.

Only Twenty per cent. got work.

is the fact that our "Miners' Agent," Mr. George Monday, only roughly 20 per cent. were able to start. forward steadily to that goal of social revolution Davies is hopelessly inadequate. Economics with him Those who were taken back are still working under which is in itself the raison d'être of our Party and are a minus quantity, and if he was ever, in past days, slavery conditions; the remainder are still walking of every individual member of our Party.

By WILFRED RISDEN.

Now, one would think, was the time for the agent was the time for the agent and Committee-men to get moving. Oh, no; not at was the time for the agent was the time all. "You people are in too much of a hurry." A great deal of indignation was felt here at the relegated to the background. The officers of the were told when, on the following Tuesday, we asked whether any steps had been taken in the matter You must have patience. Give us time and every thing will come right in the end." The optimis displayed by some people, whose salaries are go on all the time, is remarkable. But we had no so optimism and pressed further to know what steps w

July 23, 1921.

That was a fortnight ago, and meantime the Com mittee-men have done nothing. They called Committee meeting and discussed the matter and sagely. They were, in fact, getting along quite nicely, until the agent, George Robey-beg pard I meant Day'es, not Robey-woke them up by deliv ing an ultimatum; they were to have nothing to with this business; if they interfered, he would wash his hands of the whole affair.

The Bolshevik Bogey.

Here was a poser for them. "The agent would not agree to it, eh? There must be more in this the meets the eye!" Visions of Sinn Fein and Bolshe intrigue followed. "Aha! you damned extremist we've tumbled your game! Don't you think we' clever?" There the matter rested, as far as t officials were concerned.

The Left Wing Retaliates.

But we had anticipated this, and moved through other channels. We called a mass meeting of should teach the rank and file that Hartshorn is When these notices appeared, some few members workers, employed and unemployed, to consider question of organisation. From this meeting a C

The Dismissal of Executive Demanded. Our next step is a manifesto to demand that Committee-men shall be kicked out and a new Cop mittee elected to replace them. When we have attained that end, maybe we shall be able to get a

Hungry Men and Angry Men.

We fight against heavy odds, but we have no cause for dejection. Though our advance is but slow, The roughest thing we, as miners, are up against, Instead of us all being able to start together on nevertheless it is an advance. We are pressing possessed of a fighting spirit, it has been long since about. "Not a bad old world for the workers," eh? "Live Soviet Russia and the World Revolut'on!"

n more pronounced in certain countries than in modities are produced.

ine rapidly a few basic economics truths which we arrive at the value of things.

point of fact money is neither the standard possess means of production or sources of wealth. , nor the instrument of exchange. If almy- On the contrary, Mr. C., who works for Messrs.

f persons possessing certain goods, against the continuity of his manual or mental worth.

the seal of its authority over the non-possessing State is at war with another.

State defends jealously its money.

eign, although its intrinsic value—as measured longer so urgent. ing value is but a fraction of a penny. Both tes and sovereigns bear on their face the symbol let pass from its hands a greater quantity than is he State. The value of money is determined by advisable of that instrument of domination we term e power of the armed forces of the State, money.

t wages have gone down already in some trades, On the other hand, money is essentially a wageshat they will be lowered shortly in several paying instrument. Paradoxical as it may appear, is a fact only too well-known in many homes. it is only actually owned by those who are disso the reason why this fact is so general, and possessed of the means by which wealth and com-

The State defends private property. Mr. A., who the purpose of this inquiry it is well to possesses textile mills, Mr. B., who own broad acres, express the value of their possessions, not in money st let us ask: What is money? Official -actual, tangible notes or coins-but in figures of unists in the schools and in the press tell us a certain value-standard. Thus Mr. A. is worth money is a means of exchange, and the measure so many of these & value-standard, Mr. B. so many & value-standard. Both are really rich because they

the reverse is the truth; money is measured A. or B. possesses neither means of production nor e value of things privately possessed, and it natural sources of wealth: he possesses only a small being in pessession of an instrument so hotly defended ally in small retail transactions that money is quantity of these State-stamped tokens we call notes by the master-class? as a token to assist the exchange of com- or coins. These he has only in small quantities: That would be so, if money were actual wealth, given him for the work he has given to Mr. A. or were an intrinsic means of exchange; whereas actually nety per cent. of the big transfers of com- Mr. C.; for the labour he has given to extract it has only value at the pleasure of the State. As ties from one nation to another, from one goods or wealth from the machine, the field or the it is, when the worker possesses money he only has try to another, are effected by cheque, by mine, in order to be able to buy from the shop something of a fictional value, a State-determined ments, or by credit given and accepted by one these things necessary for his maintenance and the value.

the State, aye, who form the State, need more only a preliminary one. , on the contrary, whether coined gold or continuous services, or services more rapidly given sury currency guaranteed by reserve of gold to them by Mr. C., they induce the State to issue hat instrument by which the State, as the more State-stamped tokens, thereby luring Mr. C. to ssion of the legal will of the possessing class, produce more. Such is the case, always, when a

Currency then is inflated, as the economists says. Tithout the State there could not be any money. Once the armed danger of a competing State is they should be able to get into their hands, for a passed, the need of the services of Mr. C., either on while, such a portion of this instrument of dominaprivate individual can no more coin a gold the battle-field or in the munition factory, are no

The State finds itself confronted with a difficulty Under the stress of a momentary danger it has lestroy the British Navy, or otherwise sap the Having decreed that these State-stamped tokens crity of the State, and the value of British have a certain buying power for small commodities ey-as compared with that of another State- and are interchangeable with tokens of higher dedeclines. Defeated Germany and dismem- nomination (two I'cs. notes being considered equal ed Austria saw the international value of their to one pound note), the State finds it has depreciated the value of the machine, of the land, of the mine,

"orthodoxy." The small, but energetic party of rebels is making the best of every opportunity to what they hoped for and it came off! Here was and the best of every opportunity to what they hoped for and it came off! Here was and held by a competing set of foreign owners in the worker. This is the iron law first enunciated and held by a competing set of foreign owners in the worker. This is the worker. The state-stamped tokens can be taken abroad the worker. This is the worker. The worker and held by a competing set of foreign owners in the worker. This is the worker. The worker are the worker and held by a competing set of foreign owners in the worker. The worker are the worker are the worker and held by a competing set of foreign owners in the worker. The worker are the wor fields from which food is obtained, and another country: can be held in reserve by Mr. C., by Marx. g cattle and sheep, may live without using the workman, who has acquired by the possession of To secure better wages, we must do without wages, Money will be unnecessary in a Communist them a greater economic freedom than before, how- and to do without wages we must do without the ever temporary that economic freedom may be.

Two courses are open to the State, that is, to the possessing class. Either the State may declare that these State-stamped tokens are worth less, or they may be taken back from the workers by lock-outs. or by wages reductions. For the State to declare that a 10st note is henceforward only worth 5s. is to lessen its authority, to create a panic in the international credit market. Such a procedure is only adopted when all others fail. But somehow the money must be got back from the pocket of Mr. C. into the hands of the State as a measure

Hence lock-outs and wages reductions in order that the rich shall remain rich and the poor shall

Then, asks our argumentative friend, if reductions in wages could be resisted, the workers would be in a better position and nearer to their emancipation,

The process of lock-outs and of wages reductions of another set of persons pessessing certain When Mr. A. and Mr. B., who jointly control is but one of the defences open to the State, and > Assume for a moment that all round there should be solidarity amongst the workers sufficient to resist effectively any and all wages reductions. Assume further, that the workers should be able to force an upward wage movement in order to acquire many more State-stamped tokens, and consequently that tion we call money, as to depreciate so greatly the ledger value of the possessions of the master-class, that the money held by workers could buy up these possessions. Then, if this were possible, the State having failed in the wages cutting campaign, would resort to other forms of defence, many of which could be enumerated: such as increased taxation, monopolies, legal restrictions, etc.; all open to the State because it has force at his command.

. The fight against wages reductions is only useful in that it trains the workers to acts of solidarity. and makes more manifest to them the class conflict. Wages, by their nature, are an essential part of capitalist production, and cannot be brought higher, cannot remain higher than the subsistence level of leased from the local economic authorities. The had increased to 2,500 calories per person. lessees are obliged to observe all Soviet laws and trade union regulations concerning conditions of labour, safety and protection of workers in the same way as the socialised industries. The contract can only be revoked by a People's Court. The lessee may accept private orders, but for these he receives no government subsidy either in money or raw material. On the other hand, the lessee is allowed after receiving a license from the Central Economic Council and observing the conditions laid down to import machinery from abread.

FROM SOVRUSSIA.

Leasing Industrial Undertakings.

Raising a Warship.

After wearisome preparatory work the sunken warship "Perejaslavel" has been successfully raised. The English papers of Pekin say that the time This is a great success for the Russian workers, for has come for Japan to give an answer as to its the whole work was carried out without the assist- attitude in the Vladivostock question, for no one ance of any foreign specialists.

War Material for Poland.

It is reported from Danzig that a French steamer has arrived with a cargo of war material including 38 cannons and 608 tons of artillery munition.

Trade Unions Relieve Suffering Provinces. The Moscow Trade Unions have formed a special commission for giving relief to the suffering provinces.

commission. Eastern University.

The University of the People of the East which was opened a short time ago, has now 500 students. Among the students are Tartars, Tchuvats, cheskaja Schish" will be set and printed in two Khirgisians, Tcheremyssians, Bashkirs, Sarts, Aser- shifts. The first shift works from 8 a.m. till 3 p.m., beidchans, Kurds, Turks, Usbeks, Syrians, Burjats, and the second shift from 3 p.m. till 10 p.m. Ossetians, Grusians, Armenians, Persians, Koreans, Turkomen, Mari, Wotjaks, and Mordwinians. The University has accommodation for 1,800 students.

Population of Moscow.

population of Moscow amounts to one and a quarter have the right to make deposits in current accounts million. The death rate is 28 per thousand against in all institutions of the Commissariat for Finance -23 per thousand before the war. This increase is due and in the co-operative banks. Sums deposited in to influenza and typhus, which, however, have greatly these institutions must be paid out upon demand.

decreased in comparison with the previous year. to Soviet Russia has begun recently. Many of these A decree of the Soviet government published The bread consumption is increasing, and has already workers have made the trip to Russia without the to-day empowers Co-operatives and private persons exceeded that of before the war. In 1919 the food permission of the foreign representative of Soviet to lease industrial concerns. Small industries can be supply was 2,100 calories per person, and in 1920 it Russia, and were generally unskilled labourers of tives from the previous finance control, and has given shortage of skilled workers in Russia and the Sovi them the right to dispose freely of the credits which they hold, and to have their own cash account. Oriental Languages.

Privileges for the Co-operatives.

The Council of Commissaries has voted the Commissariat for Nationalities a credit of 196 million roubles for the maintenance of schools in Oriental languages in Moscow and Petrograd.

In the Far East.

believes the statement of Japan that it had no share in the setting up of the White Guard government.

Travel in Soviet Georgia.

A single tariff has been introduced on all the educated propagandists who are to criticise all rerailways in Georgia and the use of the first and ligious actions with the help of the circulation of travel free of charge at a later date.

Each large Union will send one representative to this Improving the Condition of the Workers.

"Trud," the daily organ of the trade unions. publishes the decree of the Moscow Trade Union Council abolishing night work also for newspapers. Henceforth "Isvestia," "Pravda" and "Ekonomets-A "Water Supply Week" in Moscow.

Abolution of Limitations upon Money

Transactions. According to an Order of the Council of Commissaries all limitations in the handling of money have According to statistics of the Moscow Soviet the been abolished. Private persons and organisations

Foreign Workers in Russia.

As a result of the great economic crisis in the capitalist lands a flarge immigration of foreign workers which there is no shortage in Russia, and who merely contribute to the food and housing shortage in country. From America alone there have been 87 The all-Russian Executive has freed the Co-opera- workers return to their old home. There is a great government is taking measures now that only su workers shall be permitted to move to Russia. Several groups have already arrived, chiefly from Germany. These workers are placed in the model factories and contribute very much to the increasing of production.

Anti-Religious Propaganda.

A conference on anti-religious propaganda too

Summer Work of the Students.

The students of the technical universities of Petrograd are passing their vacations at work in various factories. They are studying especially practical measures which are taken for the safety

The Moscow Trade Union Council has decided to mobilise a number of its members for work in connection with the "Water Supply Week." During this week, water pipes will be repaired and cleaned and new wells dug.

NEXT WEEK

A great series of drawings of Delegates to Commintern: Lenin, Trotsky, Zetkin, Lazzari and a crowd of others from all lands.

Order extra copies to avoid disappointment.

LENIN TO THE COMMINTERN.

gain from one day to another. hoped for, but it is already so strong that it did not Produce Tax.

the peasantry. There could be no question of either welfare of society. propriation or expulsion.

At the Comintern Congress in Moscow on July 8th, purely the character of a war measure. In this re- 'Kadets,' let the Menshevists and Social Revoluenin described the balance which has come into lation the peasantry met the Russian proletariat tionaries prepare the Thesis: "Soviets, but without xistence as the result of a number of conditions of gladly, for they saw how the old landowners always Communists. political and economic character, and which has not rose up behind the backs of the White Guards.

question at any price.

ounted upon either the coming of the world revolu- whose farms had been destroyed by a seven year the greatest possible concessions, or that they must ion or upon our historical task being merely that of war, and who had suffered by bad harvests, shortage take the road to civil war. Anything else is nonsense acemaker for the coming world revolution. How- of seed and other circumstances, were in a very and demagogy." er, Russia lives within a ring of capitalist States. difficult situation. The proletariat had a new task; After the speech of Lenin, an animated discussion hat is possible, because the evolution of the revolu- that of helping the peasantry at any price. took place, in which the Russian and foreign delemary consciousness of the mass of the workers of Thus came a change of direction in our economic gates took part. As the result of this discussion, the he world has not reached the measure that we had policy, which found its expression, above all, in the Congress unanimously adopted the following permit the bourgeois of all lands to attack Soviet "The proletariat has had the least result of the revolution. The greatest want and suffering has to "We must make use of this breathing space to be borne always by the class that makes the revoluprepare the revolution in the capitalist lands with tion. The progressive classes of the Russian proplace in the Moscow Party committee. It was stated the greatest care. The more organised the projectariat letariat who have made the greatest sacrifices for the greatest care. The more organised the projectariat letariat who have made the greatest sacrifices for the greatest care. that religious prejudices are still very widespread, in the advanced capitalist countries is, the more three-and-a-half years, and who have endured the especially in the country and the soviet especially in the country and among women. The carefully must the revolution be prepared. One greatest want, now see quite clearly that the Soviet reason for the retention of religious convictions is must always remember that the one support of the power cannot exist without an alliance with the to be found in the general backwardness of culture world bourgeoisie, to which it still owes thanks for peasants For this reason, the proletariat must make and through the increase of education the religious its rule over the proletariat, is the Second and the concessions so that the alliance can be brought about, prejudices would also be put aside. The anti- Second-and-a-half International. A very favourable, that the dictatorship of the proletariat may be religious propaganda shall be directed by specially factor for the evolution of the world revolution is the strengthened, and that we may maintain the Soviet awakening of millions of human beings in the Government, this landmark of the Socialist State.

Colonies and the semi-Colonies. This fact places us "The question of Concessions is closely bound up second class will be reserved exclusively for women, natural scientific knowledge as well as general before an important task, which consists in leading with our economic policy. The condition of things before an important task, which consists in leading with our economic policy. this huge mass along the road of revolution, in spite forces us to pay a certain tribute for our backwardof the great cultural backwardness in which it finds ness, for, cost what it may, we must re-erect our great industry; that is, we must electrify the land, for As to the Class Struggle in Soviet Russia, the without electrification, the reconstruction of our in-Russian social revolution has cleared away the dustry cannot take place. In this respect we must be upitalists and the landowners. Their remains are prepared to make every sacrifice to put into effect, grouped in a few foreign cities with the foreign before all, that plan of electrification which has been urgeoisie, and they are incited by the latter to worked out by two hundred specialists. That is the all sorts of actions against Soviet Russia, in which only means of drawing the land out of its economic they find the warmest support from the Menshevists. crisis, and it is also capable of freeing the peasantry Their tactical and strategical combinations are not from hunger and want. Already the little that we of interest to the Russian Communists alone . . ." have been able to perform in this field has shown the "After the social revolution the Russian prole- peasantry a world of labour, which is quite new to tariat had the task of regulating its relations with them; labour that is not only for them, but for the

"In spite of there being no military actions on at 'On the basis of our analysis and our many years' present, we consider ourselves to be always in a state experience, the peasantry, owing to its very character, of war, and act as is customary in war. The dictacan only exist under the leadership of the bourgeoisie, torship of the proletariat is in a state of war, and or under the leadership of the proletariat. The therefore we cannot talk to anyone about liberty of Lenin and the conclusion of the meeting. original alliance between peasant and worker bore and democracy. All the counter-revolutionary elements are now crowding to the banner of democracy. The whole world now sees, as though it were a stage play, how the capitalist party called the

"The crafty bourgeois know quite well that the illowed the international bourgeois to pass over to "The proletariat had given the peasants all the land Soviets of the Menshevists and Social Revolutionaries a open attack upon Soviet Russia. Russian Com and had helped them against the landowners, and for would be a very temporary firm* which would lead unists are using this breathing space to develop this, the peasant was under the obligation to deliver the way for the return of the capitalists and landthe Soviet regime domestically. But they do not food. In this respect we made many mistakes, for owners. Out of this arises the necessity of a pitiless orget for a moment that the open fight can begin the Soviet Government was forced to solve the food war against Menshevists and Social Revolutionaries. To the peasants, however, we say that they must "When we made the revolution," said Lenin, "we "Now, however, the war has ended. The peasants go with the projectariat, who are prepared to give them

"The Third Congress of the world Communist International views with enthusism the four years' struggle of the Russian proletariat for the capture of political power. The Congress unanimous v approves the policy of the Russian Communist Party. which has succeeded from the beginning in rightly judging the threatening danger in every situation, and found ways and means for overcoming them according to the principles of revolutionary Marxism. This Party, in its attitude to the peasant question and the question of concessions, is inspired only by the wish to reconstruct the economic life of the land, to concentrate all the force of the Russian proletariat in order to maintain the dictatorship of the proletariat until the time when the proletariat of Western Europe comes to the help of their Russian brothers. The Congress expresses its conviction that Soviet Russia, the most important fortress of the world revolution, exists only, thanks to this consistent and well-planned policy of the Communist Party of Russia. At the same time, the Congress brands the treacherous policy of the Menshevist Parties, who strengthen the capitalist reaction in its struggle against Soviet Russia, by their campaign against Soviet Russia and the Russian Communist Party, and which seeks to postpone the world social revolution. The International Congress calls upon the workers of the world to place themselves unanimously on the side of the Russian workers and peasants, and to bring to pass the October days throughout the whole

The feelings amongst those present was most enthusiastic. Stormy applause followed both the speech * Note the Hungarian example.

FOUNDED 1914.

Editor: SYLVIA PANKHURST.

All Matter tor Publication to be Addressed to the Editor Business Communications to the Manager: Workers' Breadnought, 152, Fleet Street, London, E.C.4. TELEPHONE: CENTRAL 7240,

SUBSCRIPTI	ON:			+0
THREE MONTHS (13 weeks)		Post	Free	3/3
SIX MONTHS (26 weeks)		"	"	6/6
ONE YEAR (52 weeks)		40		13/-

LEFT WINGERS' FIRST PRACTICAL MOVE.

Well done, Liverpool No. 3. Louder and louder grows the outcry against reactionary Trade Union officials; the name of those who have added their voices to the shout is legion, Robert Williams, George Lansbury, Ramsay Macdonald-to name a few of various sections, have all joined the chorus from time to time, though most of them have relapsed into whitewashing the officials with generous coats of unity whitewash.

To a little band of Red Left Wingers in the Dockers' Union is left the glory of taking the first definite step towards deposing reaction from its paralysing position in the driving seat of organised endeavouring to use the Union machinery to over- Employment Exchanges:throw reaction.

In preparation for the Annual Conference, it issued a circular to delegates, asking that Congress should give a month's notice of discharge to James Sexton, on the ground that he has betrayed the working class:

1. By not suppporting the miners; 2. By encouraging his members to handle black-

3. By failure to submit the question of wage reduction to his members in a clear and straightforward manner immediately the bosses had given notice as called for by the Lord Shaw agreement. The circuar also stated that Sexton was unable to serve the dockers, on account of his numerous other

Trade Union officials, amongst whom Sexton is one Appleton, the reactionary Secretary. Hill complained Minister is always entitled to state his reasons for of the most extreme examples, in a cear, concise way. that Appleton "believes in force." Of course resigning to the House.

for Congress :-

than the maximum paid to Branch Secretaries."

It was around this resolution that discussion mainly centred. Moved by Comrade Keenan of Liverpool who is to be congratulated on being its sponsor, i was defeated by 102 votes to 44, 16 delegates being absent and four abstaining.

Daily Herald reported it in a headline, "Sexton's joining the Communist Party. Majority"; but the old guard, who may profess to His unmitigated opposition to the Communist Interbe jubilant at this vote, know only too well that the majorities recorded against them in the House of emphatically expressed in the "Scottish Forward," Commons, where they think it so eminently worth July 2nd, in a signed article on the Brighton while to persevere, are much larger than this!

methods of action by the discontented Reds of the salient passages:rank and file is a momentous step.

to the comrades of Liverpool No. 3 branch, and in which declared that if the Communists would accept because it allowed him to be the instrument of the urging them to persevere, we call on the Left Wing the position of the Labour Party they ought to be good, to win, thereby, congratulatory self-esteem a in other Unions to follow their wise example.

A BLOW AT OFFICIALDOM IN THE ENGINEERS.

Officialdom in the Amalgamated Engineering Union must have received a surprising shock when a hundred of its members took possession of the office in Peckham Road, and obliged the officials to retire. The strength belind the revolt it is as yet impossible to

The Peckham Road offices are as splendid as those of any Government Department or capitalist company's Board Room. Its great halls are panelled with carved wood; its expensive leather-covered chairs are embossed with gold. The Executive ordinarily meets twice a day in its fine Board Room, under the Chairmanship of its General Secretary. Every Executive member brings with him a pile of papers dealing with matters in dispute which he cannot dispose of without reference to the whole Executive. Every matter is speedily dealt with: then each man returns to his own office to carry out the decision affecting his department, with the aid of his own special secretary. It is a busy round of negotiation and organisation of moulding and accommodating the masses of workers covered by the Union into the capitalist fabric in which they work.

Suddenly all that quiet, unquestioning peace was invaded! It must have been like a miniature revo-

The rebels have long been fighting the Executive for its reactionary attitude. The present blow is struck by Tory gold. Kerr Hardle, whom the Liberal because the rebels consider that the Executive has usurped unconstitutional power by announcing the discontinuance of supplementary out-of-work benefit, thus bringing pressure to bear on members to vote in favour of the employers' demand for a 6/- reduction in wages. members, most of whom are unemployed. May its Liberals. temper be revolutionary and as Communist as

THE IRISH PEACE CONFERENCE.

The fact that Sir James Craig has gone back to Ulster with the declaration that "the people of Northern bution to the shortage of at least 500,000 needed to Ireland have determined their own Parliament," and comply with the overcrowding regulations in 1910 it now merely remains for Mr. De Valera and the He answered that 176,000 houses have been built Vol VIII. No. 18. Saturday. July 16, 1921. British people to come to terms regarding the area are building, or are contained in approved tends. outside that for which I am Prime Minister," under the Covernment housing scheme for la indicates that a breakdown in the peace negotiations is authorities and public utility societies. 23,000 h imminent unless Sinn Fein will compromise. As we are built, or will be built under the subsidy so do not believe Sinn Fein is prepared to make the for private builders. great concessions demanded by British landlords and The cost to the State under the local authorities capitalists and their hangers-on, we have expected a public utilities scheme is £10,000,000 a year. breakdown from the first.

We regret to say that this country is as yet hardly houses, he said, will utilise all available labour stirred by the terrible happenings in Ireland. Most least twelve months, including a considerable reof the British advocates of peace who are so persist- of ex-Service men to be absorbed into the indu ently invoking the heavens, are still unprepared to In view of "the present financial position of come out openly and say: "Give Ireland Freedom." As for the Labour Party, its proposals are purely the building of houses beyond the 176,000, and window-dressing and would leave the real power just where it is to-day.

ATTACKING THE UNEMPLOYED.

Cutting down the unemployment benefit has not Liverpool No. 3 Branch of the Docker's Union, with satisfied the Government's zeal for economy. The practical combonsense, has struck home at last by Ministry of Labour has circularised the managers of > "All members of the staffs are invited to make suggestions for the 'tightening up of the administration of unemployment benefit.'

"Ideas must occur to all local officers from time to time, particularly in cases where it is obvious that certain recipients are not fairly entitled to benefits, and that the claimants would not have qualified for such had it been required that certain additional conditions should be fulfilled." The fact is, the Government is determined to force the unemployed to look after themselves. Our advice to them is: Do so, and do it thorough

HILL V. APPLETON.

At the General Council of the General Federation The Speaker attempted to prevent Dr. Addis This circular opened fire upon the old-fashioned of Trades, John Hill, of the Boilermakers, attacked from proceeding, but Asquith protested that Liverpool No. 3 branch also tabled this resolution Appleton believes in force; he is obliged to, the power of force is demonstrated every day, and Hill, the Government's decision: "That this Congress is of opinion that the in spite of himself, is constantly forced to recognise payment of high wages to Trade Union officials has it and to bow to it. Hill is right to attack Appleton. not been justified, and that the wage of the General but he attacks him for the wrong reason. He should Secretary shall not in future exceed £1 a week more denounce Appleton as a reactionary, and a dangerous enemy of the workers.

RAMSAY MACDONALD AND COMMUNISM

Ramsay MacDonald's eulogy of the "Left Wing" and appeal for new methods has mislead some inex-The vote against the motion is a heavy one: the perionced people who now expect to see MacDonald .

national and to the Communists at home is, however,

The old guard knows that the taking to practical In the interests of clarity we reproduce a few In that paragraph, all the best and worst of Addis

We tender our earnest and hopeful congratulations Communists. The resolution was an ostrich one, the little good it did by its housing scheme, admitted into its fold. One can imagine Convocation cull the kudos paid by a host of amateur and profes or a General Assembly deciding that, as Christian sional social reformers. Now that his own unity is a goodly and a nice thing to talk about, sphere of social reform has been snatched away, I they would admit to Holy Communion the National finds the Government too evil a company to stay i secular Society if it would declare its adhesion to the Church. Some bodies were taken in for the but a poor recommendation, but the best we can give moment by this piety of brotherly sufferance and him. allowed themselves to be pledged to this silly resolution. But the debate stripped the thing of its disguise and the Conference was saved. Some of us are too old birds to allow a Conference to be put in a false position on such an important matter as thes." "The 224,000 votes cast for the conditional admission of the Communists was an insignificant number, and yet it was more by a long way than the much good." Communist vote. The Trade Union and Socialist movement is beginning to see that the Communist is but a tool of the Capitalist reaction." This, of course, is just the sort of thing the Liberal Party used to say about the I.L.P. in the days when it was a Socialist Party. In the early days of the I.L.P. the Liberals said that it was a

SPECIAL NEXT WEEK.

How the M.F.G.B. can use its Rules to expel Reactionary Leaders. By a Trade Unionist.

You will need Extra Copies of the Paper.

"Liberal smashers," declaring that they were had attempted ineffectually to bribe, both hard cash and by subtler methods, was si assailed by such accusations.

But no one would make the mistake of Ramsay MacDonald a Tory tool, because the c could deceive no one, since he is so, patently The Provisional Committee is composed of A.E.U. typically a Liberal-in fact, the most Liberal of

NO MORE HOUSES.

In Parliament, the new Minister of Health ( Mond) who has taken Dr. Addison's place, was askal why the Government had decided to break its promise to make provision for 300,000 new houses as a contain subsidies to private builders, £5,000,000. country," the Government has decided not to assist 23,000 houses above-mentioned, to which it is alrecommitted. It would provide an annual subside £200,000 towards the deficiency on local authoriti accounts for the improvement of slum areas.

Dr. Addison, Minister of Health, then rose in second bench below the Ministerial Gangway. of in his accustomed place, and read his letter to Prime Minister, resigning his office. He pointed that already the Government scheme applied t than half the houses the local authorities had a for the year; but even this number was to be down. Sir A. Mond had not clearly explained fact that the Cabinet had decided "in no event the number of houses built by local authorities e ceed 176,000," this figure "to be reduced to the utmost possible extent." No subsidies to be given to private builders who commenced building after July 1st, though on that very day the Royal Assent had I given to a Bill extending the period for earning the subsidy to June, 1922.

The assistance to be given for improving slum a would merely reduce the number of houses arrang for under existing contracts. There are 180,000 habited houses, he said, that are unfit for hun habitation and cannot be made fit.

Addison proceeded with his letter which declared

"Violates the plain intentions of Acts of Par ment, and 'will widely, and I think rightly, ' regarded as a breach of faith . . . the 1 authorities have entered into all sorts of commit ments from which they must now extricate themselves as best they may. . . . . "The arrest of this endeavour, which thus o cupies with such unfortunate significance the first place in the search for economy, is largely the co sequence of great expenditure in other directions. You are aware that, in respect of some of them, I have consistently objected, but I must accept responsibility for concurring in them, so long to they did not jeopardise more vital interests. Perha my loyalty to yourself and to the Coalition made me more ready to compromise in such matter than I ought to have been." and others like him were summed up. He shut hi "The same mind was seen in the debate on the eyes to the evil done by the Government, because Addison is a better man than most of the rest! It

> WAS BEVIN ALSO AT THE CHEQUERS? Ernest Bevin, asked why the dockers did not preve foreign coal being brought in to defeat the miners. reported by the Daily Herald as replying that was called off because it was not complete and effective. For a few weeks, however, the embargo did

> Why not have made it effective? Those who stopped it played the capitalists' game. The Trade Union officials concerned should be call upon to answer for this.

GERMAN WORKERS TEACH US A LESSON The miners were defeated because British organi tool of the Tory Party, and called its candidates Labour had not learnt to practice solidarity. German joiners who refused to repair two British sh which put in for repair at Bremen because Britis shipyard joiners are on strike, showed that war an the race hatred stirred up by the capitalist Press Governments, have not weakened their class solidarit The Clyde shipvard joiners have been on strik since December. Their fellow-workers in other trades in this country, have left them, like the miners, to fight and starve alone.

Continued from page 1. ved metaphysically, as much as is a regisnumber, according to the order of ideal police. that Matra (Bastien), born at Cinto-Monte appear incapable of error to him. He has nght Bastien Matra endowed with a great for observation, nor that he applies an exact corous method to the examination of facts. the truth, he does not consider Bastien Matra, man is fallible, thinks he. Peter and Paul be misled. Descartes and Gassendi, Leibnitz Newton, Bichat and Claud Bernard could make akes. We are all mistaken at some time or Our reasons for error are innumerable. The tions of the senses and the judgments of the are sources of illusion and causes of incertitude. ust not put one's trust in the testimony of a Testis unus, testis nullus (single testimony is stimony). But one may have faith in a number. Matra, of Cinto-Monte, is fallible. But 64, abstraction made out of Matra's human does not fall into error. He is an entity. An has nothing in it of that which is in men, which troubles, corrupts and deceives them. An pure, unalterable and unmixed. Therefore ourt has had no hesitation whatever in setting the testimony of Dr. Matthien, who is only a in order to accept that of officer 64, who is an pure and like a ray of God descending upon ceeding thus, Magistrate Bourriche is assured kind of infallibility, the only kind to which a e can pretend. When the man who testifies is I with a sabre, it is the sabre to which he attend, and not the man. The man is contible and may be wrong. The sabre is by no ins that, and is always right. Magistrate Bourhas deeply penetrated into the spirit of the Society rests upon force, and force must be pected as the august foundation of societies. ice is the administration of force. Magistrate riche knows that officer 64 is a part of the The Prince resides in everyone of his To destroy the authority of officer 64 is eeble the State. To eat one of the leaves of ichoke is to eat the artichoke, as Bossuet in his e words said. (Political principles deduced

Ill the swords of the State are turned in the same ection. In opposing them, one against the others, would enfeeble the republic. That is why the Crainquebille was justly condemned to a fort-'s imprisonment, and a fine of fifty francs on testimony of officer 64. I imagine I hear strate Bourriche himself explaining the lofty beautiful reasons which inspired his sentence. agine I hear him say:

I have judged this individual in conformity with 64, because officer 64 is a part of the police For the comprehension of my wisdom it will for you to imagine that I had taken the course. You will immediately see that that be absurd, for if I decide against the power orce my decisions will not be executed. You I observe, gentlemen, that judges are not obeyed they have the power of force on their side. out the police the magistrate would be nothing a poor dreamer. I should negate myself if I against the policeman. Moreover, the spirit law is opposed to it. To disarm the strong to arm the feeble would be to change the order, which it is my mission to conserve. hould have held you quit of all penalty. You surroundings. His voice goes on evenly:

believe me when I say this. without doubt Magistrate Bourriche would that is a fine thing to do. Yet I cannot build." spoken, for he has the judicial mind and he s what a magistrate owes to society. He defends inciples with order and regularity. Justice is Only evil persons desire it to be human justice, I even insist that the idea of a just dissolvent." to the other of the hall of Lost Steps.

scratching his nose: hat he had always seen done. It is in imita- stage. people those who do as others.

ranslated from the French-To be cointinued.)

As expressed by Isadora Duncan

Behind her back her hands seem bound, Within her eyes broods misery, She bites the dust, her raven locks Tossed o'er the face lie kissing earth. No thought of Heaven stirs her breast, Kneeling she broods, downward her stare. She shakes her fettered limbs and moans; But agony has sharpened sense And sight and light burst through her brain. Rising, she trembles on one limb Which halts and shivers, firmer grown She tries the other and her head Thrown partly back, the dazed look fades And Comprehension takes its place. Now conscious of bent form, bound arms, She shudders, struggles fiercer still, Then rights her aching back, to find Imagination, tied the hands. The fingers one by one she tries, The arms by painful jerks shoot out, She cups her hands and gazes in, To find, Oh! ecstasy, she holds The Universe within her grasp, Life! Happiness! within her clasp.

Light as the air she rises up, Again both hands curved like a cup, Her limbs with joyous grace set free Now dance, her eyes are dancing, see! The gaze late earthward blindly turned. Now upward glows for bondage spurned. It flames and sparkles as of fire, Sees Man and Art rise from the mire. Behold! Man's Fate and Fortune stand Within the hollow of his hand!

CLARA GILBERT COLE.

UNREST.

SCENE: A THIRD-RATE TAVERN. There are rough wooden forms and a sawdustce is the sanction for the established injustices. covered floor. Glasses, half-filled, are littered about never sees her opplosed to the conquerors and the place on tables and ledges. The atmosphere reeks anst the usurpers. When an illegitimate power of stale beer and tobacco-smoke. A motley collec-Justice has only to know it to render it tion of men and women, battered by toil, are contimate. It is all a matter of form; there is gregated together, enjoying the life and warmth of ing between crime and innocence but the thick- the place. A buzz of conversation goes on. Occaof a piece of stamped paper. You should have sionally a laugh or a harsh oath rises above the hum. cronger, Crainquebille. If after you had shouted: At the far end of the counter are grouped three He deals with life as though it were but produce aux raches!" you had had yourself men, two of them are civilians and one a soldier. med emperor, dictator, president of the Re- The tallest of the three, a young man, leans his elbows , or, at least Municipal Councillor, I assure on the counter and speaks to the others, in between you would not then have been sentenced to meditative draws at his pipe. He has a thoughtful days imprisonment and a ffne of fifty francs. face and the eyes of a dreamer, oblivious of his

., "To lay stone on stone; brick on brick-to build, South Casco, Maine, U.S.A.

The other civilian spoke:

"How do you mean, that you cannot build?" "There is an unrest in my life always. I break One administers it by fixed rules and things up; I split things open, I upheave everything. with the quiverings of the flesh and the lights I question and question my questions, but I do not intelligence. Above all, do not demand that build. In my mind there is nothing to bind things ge be just, he has no need to be that because together; no constructive principle, only a could only germinate in the head of an "But that may be your part. The clods of earth It is true that Judge Magnaud gives have to be broken up before things will grow. It is sentences, but they are annulled and that not necessary to know the whole plan in order to ce. The true judge weighs the testimony by build. The foundation may be hidden and the end eight of the arms. That was shown in the a mystery. No one can know exactly what will come. hebille case and in others more celebrated. A man is happy enough if he knows what to do next, spoke Mr. Jean Lermite in passing from at the moment. He can place his brick then."

"Yes, it may be there is a place for unrest. But Joseph Aubarrée, who knew the Court, replied there are two unrests. One is a desolate despairing kind, a groping in the dark with nothing to find; If you want my opinion I do not think Mr. a longing without satisfaction; a scrambling without Sunday Schools is "devilish." che can be raised to such a metaphysical foothold. Yet good work has been done by those To my mind in accepting the testimony of who have the courage to go on, even without hope. 64 as the expression of the truth, he simply Most of those who seek, have to pass through this one must search the reason of the majority "The other unrest is an unrest of growth, a ploughn actions. In conforming to custom one will ing up of the furrows of life, ready for the seed. pass for an honest man. One describes as A breaking of the hard surface of indifference as the seed germinates and the new life forces its way up.

This is happier and more wholesome than the first unrest. There is satisfaction in it, though all the time it is seeking, working and striving; never lapsing into dull complacency.

"The first unrest is terrible. It is a cry of agony in the night, which dies away without heed or help from humanity; it is a flash of lightning playing for an instant fitfully upon the grim, bare, jagged, endless rocks and then flickering out, leaving none the wiser or better for it. It is pessimism.

"The second is creative and human. The future of the world is with this. We trace the flicker of a human thought across the ages and see it grow in power, purpose and volume with the progress of time." The soldier, a well-built man, with a firm, hard, weather-beaten face, had stood listening to the two talking, and now spoke:

"You get beyond me with your talk about unrest. I cannot discuss all that. I just live. I have been with men in many parts of the world, and have seen them live and die. It is hard to spend one's life marching over a burning desert or rotting in a muddy trench. But it all calls for endurance and effort. There is a fierce joy in it, even if the effort is misdirected. I just go on living, seeing, hearing and travelling. I join in with the rough, hard life of men who talk, smoke and swear while they go on nonchalantly with the struggle. I hear the women whisper and laugh, scornfully or tenderly. And life slips by. Why question it? We must all live and

The tall young civilian replied:

"But with it all you must go on too. You have unrest in your soul. Just getting up and going back to bed would not satisfy you. You must have adventures and new people. Unrest always drives people forward to do something new and different. You take life easily. You enter and float with it. On the contrary, I always question. Why do I five? What have I to make of my life? Why do people think and speak as they do? Why does it bore them to discuss the things which seem most important to me? What is the reason behind it all? Why? . . .

"I want to tear the veil which shrouds reality, to lay bare the motive forces of thought and action; to dig even beneath these."

The tall man gravely knocked his pipe out upon the counter, filled it slowly and methodically, lit it and puffed with deliberate satisfaction. All around under the canopy of smoke, men and women buzzed excitedly, talking, gesticulating, laughing and drinking. A tiny knot of unrestful, striving, chafing, swarming humanity, typical of the whole. And all the time life swirled on.

THE PRAGMATIST.

He sits in his high balcony above the noisy

And listens to the ceaseless tramp of scores of passing feet,

The tread of human armies, in advance and in

- He wonders idly whence they come and whence they must return,

And how they serve and where they serve and what perchance they earn, And whether in these many hearts the old proud passions burn.

He views the world in Pity's glass and guides: his path apart; in the mart. And ponders on the uselessless of love and

-JAMES WALDO FAWCETT.

Henderson's funny sayings: "Is there any man present who believes that Macdonald, Snowden, or Smillie are Bolsheviks? Had the Labour Party been content to serve Mr. Lloyd George's ends, nothing would have been heard about Bolshevism or Socialism."

Does Henderson repudiate Socialism also?

Labour Party leaflet :-

song and art.

"The vote is a safety match: it strikes only on the ballot-box." Quite so. Good anti-Parliamentary propaganda.

The Bishop of London says the teaching in Socialist

BADGES.

SOVIET ARMS, in gilt on red enamel, Is. 3d. and 9d. each, 12s. and 6s. per dozen.-Apply. Manager, "Workers' Dreadnought," 152, Fleet Street, E.C. 4.

Rolshevik Plots.

Railway Fares.

North-East Ulster Specials.

mitted all these crimes."

THE MINERS' FINAL STEP.

The miners' final step: what is it to be? We have heard the first step discussed, and seen it operate; the next we have also heard and seen, but the final step has not yet come to light. The revolutionists among the miners are still a stumbling block, but an impassible barrier.

wrestling with the next step. So far as lhe miners' organisation goes, its fighting organisation to the foundation and considerably con- Socialist miners to permeate the M.F.G.B.! vulsed the Trade Union world, it has not approached This is their decision, and they know that it is need enlightenment and encouragement. alley for the road to emancipation.

make that road muddy and impassible to progress. ing along the same old path?

far greater pitch has it voiced the ideas of the band of the blackened ruins of BLACK FRIDAY.

twelve years, something has got to stir. Something did stir; but it has not moved in a revo- is dangerous.

M.F.G.B., where revolutionaries could rest. But what was the use of the oasis when one had to travel into the desert after a while? The Syndicalist found the desert a stumbling block to progress. Not only

To work then, to make easy the path to progress! One has to stand in awe at the cheerfulness of the spirit has been the result of hard and un- South Walians; when, after all the years of toil remitting toil on the part of the South Walians, they make up their minds that the oasis is not large who are Syndicalists in the original sense of the enough and they must plant the trees of Syndicalism word, and while that toil has shaken the miners' all over the desert. In other words, "to work its final objective; for it seems to have either missed necessary to complete their work as workers. This is the path, or (as one surmises) it has mistaken a blind the spirit they bring into the Workers' Committee Movement as a miners' section. Truth to tell, they Over and over again have the revolutionary band have become machines dominated by the brains that of South Walians hammered hard and long on the fathered them, and they seem to be working as Syndicalist path to make it seem a beaten road for machines. Is there no other hope for the the workers to traverse, but more and more do they Industrial struggle than more decades of hard batter-

The S.W.M.F. has borne the fruits of ten or twelve Skimming over the situation to-day, we see chaos, years' unrelenting toil; that is, it has approached to black, dreary chaos, out of the struggle that the the ideal of Syndicalism, and has, to a certain pitch, miners have recently gone through. The revolutionvoiced the opinion of the rank and file; but to a aries, even, are feebly beating their hands against coldly-calculating Syndicalists (that is, men who The Triple Alliance was a weapon designed for use, believe that the Trade Unions as Trade Unions can not for the issuing of manifestoes; and it would have be made the revolutionary weapon, provided that those been an organisation in line with the Syndicalist men permeate the Trade Unions and capture the plan (in theory), could it have been permeated in official positions), who say that they have examined time. But what an age! Fortunately it broke down the scientific Industrial Union, but found it non- before it caused more assiduous straining at the elastic applicable to the miners. That there are results, bands of Syndicalism. Surely it has become is obvious; for if a number of Socialist miners get apparent that the Trade Union weapon-even pertogether-men of the calibre who dominate the meated by revolutionary officials-is useless; and an S.W.M.F.—and persistently hammer for ten or Alliance of four or five of these monstrous growths of early Capitalism is worse than useless, it lutionary way yet; for after all the toil expended, Tinkering and tampering, patching here and patchthe S.W.M.F. was found to be an oasis in the ing there, is wasted energy, and that energy would be well spent in clearing the way for a scientific organisation. What is the object, to permeate t M.F.G.B. and then stand in isolated splendour I little Eric: "Look what we have done; now you and do likewise"

If the Socialist miners have had sense to see the the Rhondda is not the world, surely they can look further ahead and see that the Coalpit is not to

Is it fair to say that "we have straightened ndustry out, and that is our work"? The sphere is wider than that. The Triple Alliance broke down because the rank and file did not understand each other, and the two-thirds who were most backward

The Seamen and Firemen-indeed, all the ransport Industry—are vainly searching for a way out; they are pleading for knowledge and support and they are crying for the ONE BIG UNION this the miners' FINAL STEP? Should the vibrant energy of the Syndicalist miners be turned into the channel? Their organisation is as useless as was t Western Federation of Miners of America; as useles as the United Mineworkers of America. The Western Federation collapsed because the members saw light of the One Big Union shining. The United Mineworkers have just been sold as the M.F.G.R has been sold, although its members are counted as

The voice of the Marine Transport Industry growing to a roar for the O.B.U. Will the Syndicalis miners leave the path of trampled mud and he and take up the propaganda of the SCIENTIF One Big Union? It only requires clear thinking the present situation to see the necessity of the One Big Union, and if the Marine Transport dustrial Union becomes an existant fighting orga sation without the Mining Industrial Union, the SHAME on the Socialist miners.

By HENRY SARA Costly Additions.

In the ear'y part of January of this year, I left traction, reduce a wood-block road, in the course were taken to the chief officer of the staff responsib of the year, to a miniature mountain range. Years for this work. At the doorway of this buildingbefore the Revolution, civil engineers tried all sorts formerly a large bank, I believe-two men were Whilst I was watching the workers and trying to of things to meet the road problem, but I was standing with rifles. They were dressed in ordinary understand things under the Soviets, I realised that assured by those interested in the subject, and anxious clothes and seemed to be chatting together in a free stones, fairly square cut; in some parts of the city men. Behind the counter, a relic of the old life moving about without a "pass"; to talk about the and places where quietness is essential are situated, In this building Zinoviev worked and lived when it streets being knee-deep in mud, as Mr. Shinwell did tarred and asphate roads are laid. These prepared Petrograd. From here instructions were issued at the Brighton Conference of the Labour Party; but roads are kept in good condition when the weather safeguard that part of the Soviet Republic. The the A.B.C. of everyday life tells us that if a railway permits, but there are times when it is impossible building and the employees in the building were > lised by their employers. Sir Reginald Blair (C.U., Bow and Bromley), who Bill, and many divisions were taken. always opposed to progress, complained that in The Domestic Servant.

Educating the Young.

nd rather than general." at complovers may forbid it if they choose.

ssue is: "Whether you are going to continue a money it receives from Russia.

State Church with State endowments when the State vill Thorne (Lab.) said that as wages and building will have no control over the church or its endowarial have gone down the increase of 10 per cent. ments.' rent this mouth is unjustifiable. The pseudo-

Water to Cost More.

PARLIAMENT AS WE SEE IT.

are supposed to be raised as a benefit to you!

land Archer-Shee (C.U.) was again on the war-

Devlin drew attention to many murders in h-East Ulster, and complained that this was due

he fact that, though a truce reigned elsewhere

North-Sast Ulster, there remained the Special tables, who, he said, were "merely politicians irty-five fatal accidents occurred through the vorking of outcrops by miners during the lock-out.

The Minister of Transport could not promise re-have been discharged from the London Underground in service much curtailed, but Geddes says: "Cura motor car, and an outfit allowance on appoint-ences and a gnotor car maintained at the public ent of services is not in itself a reason for has abolished the visa, France has offered it is believed by the people that they have ent to ferment discontent in Ireland, and Coalitionist, Col. John Ward, falsely sug-A Bill to enable the Minister of Health to allow that this would entail the repeal of the Rent water companies to put up the water rate was read iction Act, and make things worse for the a second time without a division. So we are Lloyd George, of course, agreed that it would disastrous for them. Thus, fellow-workers, the Trade with India.

The Overseas Trade Credits and Insurance Bill was discussed, and it was complained that it is not to be applied to India. Mr. Arthur Michael Samuel against the Russian Trade Convention. He said explained that Manchester merchants are against it £50,000 had been paid in Berlin by the Soviet because Indians ordered goods from them when the rupee was 10 to the pound, and now that the rupee 1921;the Russian Trade Representative in Rome had is 15 or 16 to the pound they don't want to take the Soviets are on excellent terms with the the goods. ian Revolutionaries. More power to their elbow !

Electricity: London v. Moscow.

A private Bill to enable a body of private capitalists, the London Electric Supply Company, to extend its undertaking passed its second reading by 93 votes to 53. The L.C.C. opposed it on the ground that London's electricity should be developed on behalf of the population. The Government, through Mr. Neal, of the Ministry of Transport, supported the private company, and argued that the House of Lords had approved the measure. It was also argued that the electric supply must be increased at all costs. The L.C.C. does not move fast enough. It is only Soviet Russia that tackles electrical duced fares, although the Railway Wages Bill is development on an adequate scale.

fuced by £19,950,000 a year. Hundreds of men Defence Force. 12,000 treops were stationed in the coallields. lways, great numbers put on short time, and the They cost £770,000.

Opening Letters.

were not opened during the Coal Strike, but when week is the average cost per head of maintaining asked: "Does that apply to the officials of the department, one of whom is stationed in the Post Office in 6s. 5d. per head was the sum paid in out-relief by so between French and British nationals. The London," the reply was: "That question ought to be the close-fisted administrators of capitalist governaddressed to the War Office!!"

Prison Labour.

British Ambassador in Paris has a salarg Sir J. Baird (C.U., Home Office) said that the In Scotland the cost of keeping people in institu-£2,500 a year, and an allowance for "Frais de Statutory Rule is that the hours of prisoners' labour tions was higher than in England and Wales, i.e., esutation" of £14,000. The British Ambassador are not more than ten or les than six a day, ex- £1 2s. 01d. per head. For keeping them at home in Washington gets £2,500 and £17,500. In addition, se Ambassadors have Embassy residences, the cost

Outside the prison, when we speak of an eight-hour Number of applications for pensions rejected and day, we include the meal-hour. Prisoners in Ho'loway on w ment of £600. The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland gets 000 and £3,000 outfit allowance, two official work from 6.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., and afterwards sew in their cells till 7 p.m. This makes a 124-ho r

The Labourers' 40/-

With much advertisement the compulsory day con- The Agricultural Wages Board proposes a 40/nation education for young persons was embodied flat rate, inclusive of the value of cottage and other extras, for men farm workers over 21 years. Even this he last education Act. Now it appears that out is too daring it seems, as the Wages Board is being of 145 local educational authorities only 5 are putting the scheme into practice, and in one of em, West Ham, the young people who attend the Free Trade v. Protection.

tinuation schools during the hours prescribed are Long speeches were delivered by Free Traders and Protectionists on the Safeguarding of Industries the L.C.C. day continuation schools domestic servants The Minister of Labour said there is to be a Court are taught "dancing, stencilling and Russian litera- of Referees to decide whether domestic servants are c," and asked that the education be made "voca- entitled to unemployment benefit. Mr. Swan (Lab.) asked whether there was to be any regulation of hours he wants the poor little slavey to spend her con- or wages which would justify refusal of a situation nuation school hours in being made a more efficient and therefore entitle the applicant to continued vey, not in developing her mind. Blair also wanted benefit. No answer was given. Colonel Newman education made voluntary instead of compulsory, (C.U.) was anxious that Labour Exchanges should lay down no conditions of employment.

Communist Propaganda. The Clurch of Scotland Bill went another stage. Mr. G. Doyle (I.N.) asked if he can give the logge (Liberal) accused the Coalition of jobbery number of offices rented by the Communist Party, over the endowments, saying that the real question what the Party spends for rent and salaries, and what Sir J. Baird (C.U.) said the Communist Party does not publish accounts, but it has bought premises in London. "In the present state of the law, it is not a criminal offence to introduce money for such Poor Law Children.

There are 60,672 children in Poor Law institutions. They should be at home with their mothers! Old Age Pensions.

Figures for the year ending March 21st, 1921:-Total paid in Pensions ..... £25,087,000 Cost of Administration: -Pensions Committee

Government Departments

Number of Pensions paid last Friday in March, 936,577 at 10s. rate. 26,459 at 8s. , 17,174 at 6s. .. 12,670 at 4s.

6,153 at 2s.

1,629 at 1s. 1,740 not yet adjusted to new rates under Old Age Pensions Act.

.. 1,002,342

Cost of Poor Law Relief in England and Wales. 1919-20.

Average cost per person of institutional relief (other than in lunatic asylums). 28s. 10 dd.

Average cost per person of domiciliary Since it costs more than four times as much to keep poor people in institutions than to let them maintain themselves outside, it is an expensive cruelty to keep the old age pensions so low that old people The Home Office stated that trade union letters cannot exist on it. But to say that 6s. 5d. per a person at home is misleading. The average of ments: it is far below the sum required to maintain anyone in decency.

an average of only 5s. 101d. was given.

what grounds:-
Age	14,541
Pcor Relief	13,624
Means	24,843	188
Other cars s	2,290
	55 208

Number of persons in England and Wales in institutions (other than lunatic asylums) and in receipt of out-door relief on 1st January, 1901:-

		Institution Relief.	Domicilary   Relief.	Totals
1.	Total number of persons all ages -	203031	376303	579336
2.	Number of persons over 70 included in 1	40939	11754	52693
0.	Number of old age pensions in 2	3311	9998	13309

Prisoners cost rather less than paupers:-

Per head per week. Net Cost after deducting value of labour and incidental re-Local prisomers:

CORRESPONDENCE.

A SHEFFIELD COMMENT.

A. Carford, of Sheffield, writes:-

"Your article in last week's 'Dreadnought' showing how the parliamentary policy works out in plar, and how the Communists there are failing practice revolutionary destructive action on that ly, has aroused a lot of interest up here, and a reat deal of sympathy is expressed with the Left standpoint that the Communist Party would well to leave the Elections and the Labour fakirs in Though we thank Comrade Carford for telling us the paper is appreciated, we do not favour the suggestion of a Woman's E.C. for the Communist ty, and we do not see why the article he refers should lead to any such suggestion.

e issue between ourselves and those members e Communist Party is not a question of man mist action. Some comrades will say that the Demonstration.

of Left Wing Communism.

Others will say that the policy of the Poplar ment. members of the Communist Party whom we had This was anticipated in the "Communist" adverattacked is not even Right Wing Communism, but tisement. rank second Internationalism, and that such action must be repudiated by the Executive of the Third International in Moscow.

That is precisely our own view. But no one can reasonably set up that there is any question of sex in this controversy. To suggest a special woman's section of the Party, because of such controversies as this would be as absurd The fact that the 'Dreadnought' has exposed the as to have said that out of controversies between latter is appreciated, and some comrades advocate Marx and Bakunin should have arisen a German and Woman's E.C. for the Communist Party with the a Russian Party, or that because of some difference readnought' as an unofficial organ. What do you of opinion on the housing question between Bernard Shaw and the Webbs should be formed an Irish and a British section of the Fabian Society. . The questions at issue between the Communist Party and the "Workers' Dreadnought" are questions of tactics and principle concerning Communism. In Friends are requested to return Unsold Tackets, III. International versus II.

THE RED INTERNATIONAL. ersus woman. It is a question of whether the Dear Comrade,-I should be obliged if you would ncipals and tactics of the Communist International give publicity in the "Dreadnought" to a correction being applied. It is a question of opportunism of one error in your leader of July 9th. Tom Mann ersus principled and consistent revolutionary Com- was not advertised as a speaker at the July 3rd to order copies of the "Workers' Dreadnought" to policy of the Communist members of the Poplar Had the Moscow Red Trade Union International Board of Guardians is the policy of Right Wing Conference started as intended on July 1st a special Communism, whilst our criticism expresses the policy message for delivery from the Trafalgar Square platform would have come through according to arrange-

Yours fraternally, F. SMITH.

C. Lucy, 8, Okenampton Road, Exeter, writes: "You can send me a parcel of Dreadnoughts and useful pamphlets to dispose of amongst my fellow-workers-railwaymen. I am requested by Dreadnought readers to express their appreciation of your efforts to stimulate the spirit of Thanks to you and Exeter readers. Your order will be attended to.

WOODFORD GARDEN PARTY.

short, it is Left Wing Communism versus Right or with the amounts due, to the Manager, "Workers' Dreadnought" Office, 152, Fleet Street, London, E.C.

THE HOLIDAYS.

You are thinking of your holidays. Do not forget take away with you.

THE GRIEF AND GLORY OF RUSSIA.

London for Soviet Russia.

For a very long time I had thought of going.

Socialist Federated Soviet Republic. Then the "probusk" (pass) difficulty of which so problems of fighting the extremes of climate. many complain: if a Constitution is adopted by cause the building was an exceedingly high one. clothed, explaining that they were leaving Petrograd. Petrograd. Miss Buchanan has written a work en Half-a-dozen of us walked through the building, up as "there is no order here!"

delightful view for about three-quarters of an hour. shevik Russia," and the emphasis she lays upon the Petrograd. We left without a word being said to us by any condition of the people's clothing had impressed me But then, she was was an Ambassador's daughter official. Some days later we proposed to go up again considerably. I was prepared to witness large If you be a proletarian, however, then Red Petroto the top of the tall hotel. When we reached the numbers of cultured people undergoing acute want, office, the keeper of the hotel asked for our and badly clothed. I never saw those people; on the "probusks." At this, an English-speaking member contrary, I met many folk, who were obviously of the party began to rave. Another member ex- of the bourgeois class, as well, or better-dressed, plained to the "caretaker" who we were and what even, than my lady with the Duchess hat. we wanted, and permission was at once given to us to But the Hall filled with sailors, soldiers, women and go to the top of the hotel. But our offended member girls, men and boys; and in the moving scene, still carried on about the "probusk." When I reached Russia, it was bound in snow and The bar had neither beer nor spirits, only "tchy" ice, and I realised the hardship of the road. Then (tea). The people seemed to have an air of assurance, the sun came, and with it came the members of the and they chatted and laughed with a wonderful spirit. Communist Party, and Non-Party, workers to clear Russia was beginning to appeal to me. The word the snow away. As the snow disappeared, one saw the "comrade" had such a pleasant ring. It was no Michel. deplorable state of the roads. Motor car travelling longer used in a half-jocular way, nor as though it became unpleasant. How the cyclists managed was was applied by peculiar people to other peculiar a mystery. Young fellows and girls sprinting along people. In England we have no genuine form of adto business on bikes in the mornings dispelled the dress. In this railway hall I was learning at last the influence of the stories about "lazy Russians." The horrors of Russia. Just fancy a mere peasant girl part of London. He was open and courageous i swamped with filth."

Russia has a road problem. True. It is this: there were no dead horses, only live ones. The intense cold and the ice cause great expansion dur- Before one could ride to Moscow, permission had those Comrades and sympathisers who assisted him ing one period, and the intense heat causing com- to be obtained, and to that end, a little group of us financially.

one must grasp the Grief of that land of Freedom, to cope with it, that, so far, they had found nothing and easy way. Whilst permission was being obtained in order to appreciate fully the Glory of the Russian ideal. The nearest thing to permanency, was cobble at the office, near these two men, I noticed two other It is so easy to sneer at the time a train journey where these are laid, the roads were perfect. Their stood a machine-gun! takes; to write sarcastically about the difficulties of fault, however, is noise, and so, where offices, schools Dreadful! Here was bayonet rule! engine runs on coal or oil, and the supply stops, the to do anything but struggle through them. There being looked after by "common workmen" of t engine will not run; that if an attempt is made to are two courses open to you: you can swear at the Red Army. Later I understood why it was that these get over the difficulty by the use of wood, it is not Communist Party if it relieves your feelings; or you precautionary measures had to be adopted. If the the fault of the workers on the train if there is a can philosophise gently over the fact that if the Bosheviks, either by the Terror, or by the Extrareduction in the speed of the engine. Fault! fault! workers of Russia are left in peace, they will have an ordinary Commission, had really been as brutal as why they have earned our deep admiraton for the opportunity of attending to their roads, and the best they were made out to be, the existing bourgeon effort they make to overcome these grave obstacles! brains on the subject will be called upon to solve the plotters would not be as plentiful as undoubtedly they the people, in which it is stated simply and plainly - Petrograd railway station presented rather a dismal of wood in some of the streets. Had Mr. Wells been that the working class alone is entitled to rights and appearance at 5.30 a.m. A small theatre erected there, no doubt he would have used his camera, with privileges, the self-constituted dominant class has towards one end of the building was covered on the the same purpose as he took the photograph of the an interest in protecting itself. Therefore, all and outside with propaganda posters representing workers building in Petrograd, which occupies the frontissundry are not to be admitted just where all and busy constructing locomotives, and the benefits re- piece to his book. These piles of wood were not for sundry choose to go. The pass system is annoying suting from their industry. A "lady" sailed up barricades, but for fuel. They were stacked in readiat times, but the conditions demand that precautions wearing a Duchess hat, yellow lace, and black satin ness for working and heating, not for street-fighting! be taken so long as Soviet Russia is the one country dress. Her appearance gave me a shock. She asked Petrograd was covered in snow, but the c't in the world where the capitalist class does not me my nationality; how I had got to Petrograd; what generally, did not present the dismal aspect of dominate. Moreover, the complaints are often not I intended to do there, and whether I knew how reads of. Perhaps shops of goods mean more justified. On one occasion, a party of us went to an dreadful things were in Russia? She introduced me to others than to me. But the human stuff! hotel in Moscow to obtain a view from the roof be- her husband, who looked well-groomed and well- there are real men and women in Petrograd!

the stairs and out on the roof, where we enjoyed the I had read Mrs. Snowden's book, "Through Bol- a lot of talk about sunsets. Her city of trouble is forgot this lofty lady and examined the "crowd.

bumpy road makes one feel sorry for them. But calling my lady with the Duchess hat: "Comrade!" here is a party of road-workers. You think of At last my vigil came to an end; the baggage was sterling honesty always carried conviction. Oxford Street being "up." Not a bit of it! These loaded on to the car, and away we sped to the Hotel men get down the big main street of Moscow in International. Shades of John Reed! His story no time, and the wide street, beautifully straight was constantly in my mind. One saw that hanging and even, makes delightful travelling. That is the on to a car whilst it flew down the street was a truth about the "knee-dep mud, and the streets commonplace thing here; but there were no bullets flying now. The streets were in perfect order, and

During my brief stay in Petrograd I noticed p titled: "The City of Trouble"; a stupid book, w grad is lovable; for it is revolutionary

DEATH OF ROBERT B. B. PEDDIE.

Comrades in London, especially in Hammersm Battersea and East Ham will hear with deep reg of the death of our old, trusted Comrade Ro Peddie, who passed away on Friday night, July at 12.30 p.m., from broncho-pneumonia, follow an operation on the previous Monday. He include amongst his personal friends William Morris, P Kropotkin Malatesta, Madame Sorgue, and Louise

He had been ill for three months previously, already had undergone one operation. He was unique personality who knew no fear. For o thirty years he was an active propagandist in evel his style of speaking, and his outspokenness homely humour was unique, and always secured him large working-class audiences.

Comrades from Hammersmith, Battersea and Woolwich followed him to his last resting place Chiswick Cemetery on July 7th, 1921. We wish to take this opportunity, on behalf his family and the West London Group, of thanking P.F.M. and J.T.

BOOKSHELF.

THE NEW LABOUR MONTHLY.

The Labour Monthly, published by the recentlyformed Labour Publishing Company, makes its first appearance this month. G. D. H. Cole is its guiding spirit. Its object seems to be to voice the asperations of the "Left Wing" in the trade union world, but like everything emanating from its source, it is too cautious, hesitant, and innately uncertain to dd so effectively.

The unsigned editorial is heavy and verbose in phraseology, repeats established obvious commonplaces with the air of announcing an important new discovery to people who had not the least inkling of its existence. Thus in its first section it tells us lengthily that, "the situation of Labour in any country is 'part of a general international situation,' and that the old machinery of the Labour organisations is "inadequate to the task confronting labour."

In its second section it tells us that neither craft unionism nor industrial unionism is enough to meet the occasion, and that "real working class unity of action" is needed when the struggle becomes one to "alter the wage system."

Does that mean to abolish the wage system; to abolish capitalism? The Labour Monthly ambiguously refrains from plain terms?

Referring to French trade unionism the editorial says that the forthcoming congress of the C.G.T. will mean a split, because the Right Wing declares its intention of expelling the Communists, and if the Left wins, the Right will secede. The Labour Monthly abstains from giving its blessing to either party, merely concluding: "In either case there seems little hope for unity in the C.G.T. Evidently the editor prefers unity to definition of purpose. Referring to Left v. Right dissentions in the Norwegian Trade Union Movement the note of regret is again expressed; the editor fails to recognise these dissentions as a sign of growth and its inevitable accompaniment. He is too cantions, too undecided, to take sides and to support and encourage the side he has chosen.

The Labour Monthly cannot therefore become a leader and developer of opinion. Referring to Antithe editor says: "It is not too much to say that on the issue of this struggle of the 'open shop' in America depends the future of Labour in the Western world." This is enormously and absurdly to magnify a temporary issue. The editor should recall his own words, "The situation of labour" is "part of a general international situation." He actually said: "has become," but we substitute "is"; for this fact is not a fugitive, but an essential one.

A long dissertion by G. D. H. Cole on "Black Friday," whatever may be the author's intention, fails to convey without doubtfulness, that the "horrible collapse," as he terms it, of Black Friday was not due to unreadiness of machinery, but to unwillingness of mind, and that it was not a collapse, but the repetition of a long practiced and obstinately com-firmed policy.

In an article entitled "France and the Future." Henri Barbusse declares his Communist faith: Communism is not an aspect of Socialism, it is its very essence. . . . The extreme and intransigent attitude of the Communist Party is pure wisdom and shows deep knowledge of practical realities. The workers and their leaders have too long been mislead by the bogey of Unity. Unity is nothing but an empty word if it consists in collecting and holding together, by means of obscure and half-expressed terms, parties fundamentally opposed to each other, and who, as soon as they are faced with the need for action, come out in their true colours, and break away, only to end by joining the obstinate and heterogeneous ranks of the enemies of true progress. . . . The Moscow militant party was right in fighting the reformist tendency with a determination that some thought exaggerated. . . . " Henri Barbusse, we stretch out our hands to you. You have therein promounced the justification of the "Workers' Dreadnought."

ROSA AND KARL.

In a review of Paul Levi's "What is Broken?" by Phillips Price, which appears as a little Communistic spice in the new Labour Monthly, the reviewer quotes Paul Levi's statement:-

"Rosa Luxemburg would have broken with Liebknecht as soon as the rising of January, 1919, in Berlin had been liquidated." This may be an exaggeration, but it is undoubtedly true that there were tactical differences of opinion between Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg. At the beginning of the war Liebknecht incurred Luxemburg's censure by abstaining instead of voting against the war credits. When the last struggle came, in which the two Communists lost their lives, the attitude of Luxemburg, on the other hand, was somewhat more cautious than that of Liebknecht.

Luxemburg desired to concentrate the strike, for the time being, not on the overthrow of the Scheidermann government, and the immediate establishment of Soviets, but on a number of minor though important issues.

"Away with this government of cowards," she declared, must only be a battle cry. The general strike must be for the right to elect the police president, removal of counter-revolutionary troops from Berlin, and so on. She held the masses to be as yet, mentally unprepared to fight for the establishment of Soviets. Some of those who agreed with her view have since said that had her policy been carried out, she and Liebknecht would not have been killed.

We think that a mistake. If the masses were unready at the time to make a serious fight for the Soviets, they were doubtless unprepared to fight seriously for Luxemburg's programme.

It may be that Luxemburg was right and that large masses would have fought for her programme who did not yet desire the Soviets, but we think it unlikely.

Moreover, the counter-revolution realising as clearly as Luxemburg, the paramount importance, both to the revolutionaries and the counter-revolutionaries, of securing control of the military and police, would have struck with equal ferocity against those whom it held to be the backbone of the movement, if the strike had been declared on the Luxemburg plan. It knew as well as Luxemburg that who holds the power calls the time.

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED.

Against Criminality. By Arthur St. John. No. 12 of Penal Reform League. 7, Dalmeny Avenue, London, N.Y.

Crime and Social Progress. By Arthur St. John. Ditto.

Seventh Report of Penal Reform League, 1914-1917.

The Next Step. A family Basic Income. By A. B. Piddington, K.C. Macmillan & Co., Limited,

Melbourne. The A.B.C. of Communism, by N. Bucharin and E. Preobraschensky, translated by P. Lavin, S.L.P., Glasgow,

The New Dawn. Official organ of the National Union of Distributive and Allied Workers. "Oakley," Wilmslow Road, Fallowfield, Manchester. Editor, L. Lumley, Proletarier. Communist monthy issued by the K.A.P.D. (Communist Labour Party of Germany). 1.50 marks.

Civil War in France. By K. Marx; with a historical Introduction by R. W. Postgate. Labour Classic No. 1. Labour Publishing Company, Limited, 6, Tavistock Square, W.C. 3s.

Communism. By Eden and Ceder Paul. Labour Booklet No. 3. Labour Publishing Company, Limited. 6d.

All these may be obtained from the "Workers" Dreadnought" Office.

THE DREADNOUGHT BOOKSHOP.

152, FLEET STREET

(Entrance in Bolt Court).

Open daily, also Saturday afternoons and Sunday mornings from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

We have in Stock Books on History and Economics. Novels, Poetry, etc., with a Communist tendency

A large Stock of Russian Literature. Communist Books, Leterature and Periodicals in German, French, Russian, etc., etc.

OUR STOCK INCLUDES:-

	Civil War in France (Karl Marx)	3/-
	A.B.C. of Communism (Bukharin)	2/9
	Communism (Eden and Cedar Paul)	6d.
	A History of Trades Councils, 1860-1875
	(Cicely Richards)	1/-
	Prison Impressions (Clara Gilbert Cole)	6d.
	The Iron Heel (Jack London)	2/-
	With the Turk in War Time (Marmaduke Pickthall)	5/-
	The Spy (Upton Sinclair)	3/6
	A Communion of Sinners (Evelyn Sharp)	1/6
	Red Europe (Frank Anstey)	3/3
31	Economic Consequences of the Peace
	(Keynes)	2/-
	Your Part in Poverty (George Lansbury)	1/- Abolition of Money (Seijiro Kawashima,
ă.	Editor of "Dai Nippon")	1/6
	SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE.

During July and August only, the following reduced rates are offered to customers taking over a hundred conies of the following pamphlets:-

hundred copies of the following pamphiers:-
Name or Title	Price.	Price	Price per 100.
Red Russia (Reed)	6d.	4/-	16/-
Ireland (Gorter)		The second second second	4/-
The Finnish Revolution	The second secon	2/6	8/-
The Communist Party (Zinoviev)	2d.	- 1/6	8/-
The Hungarian Revolution
(Schmidt)		8/9	24/-
Bourgeois Democracy (Lenin),	2d.	1/6	8/-
The Truth About Russia
(Ransome)		3/-	12/-
Facts About Communist Hungary (Alice Riggs Hunt)	4d.	3/-	16/-
To British Workers (with map explaining Soviets' working system	$\frac{1}{2}$ d.	2d.	1/-
An Appeal to the Young
(Stewart)	2d.	1/6
Communist Song Book	4d.	8/-	8/-
	A STATE OF	THE PARTY NAMED IN

HOW THEY WORK IN BUDAPEST.

In Budapest 17 young workers were arrested for distributing Communist literature. They were tried by court-martial and three of them were given to years' imprisonment; the others, 10 and 12 years.

TYPEWRITERS AND DUPLICATORS.

We regret that in the advertisoment of Deacon's Typewriters the telephone number was given in error as 2754 Central. It should be 2452 Central Applicants please note.

COMMUNICATIONS TO THE EDITOR.

All letters and MS. for the Editor should be addressed to :-

THE WORKERS' DREADNOUGHT, 152, FLEET STREET, E.C.4. and should be clearly marked "Editor."

THE EDITOR "AT HOME."

The Editor will be in the Workers' Dreadnought office, to meet comrades, the last Sunday in every month, from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

THE YOUNG COMRADE.

A Children's Monthly.

Published by the Young Communist International. Price - - 3d:

From the "WORKERS' DREADNOUGHT" Office.

" MOSCOW."

Daily Organ of the III. Congress of the "Comintern" (Communist International).

4d. Post Free. 3d. each. An interesting and valuable record.

From the "Workers' Dreadnought" Office.

ADVERTISEMENTS. OUR RATES.

One Single inch (up to three inches) ...... 58. Every additional inch after three inches ...... 4s. Contracts for not less than 13 weeks 25% discount. Contracts for a column, half column, page and half page with liberal discount. Terms on application to-MANAGER,

"Workers' Dreadnought," 152, Fleet Street, E.C. 4

DENTISTRY.

For Satisfactory Teeth see F. ALDRIDGE, Communist, 41 Waterloo Road, S.E.1. 10 per cent. Discount for Comrades.

TYPEWRITERS AND DUPLICATORS.

Barlock Visible, £3. Rem. 3, £2. Monarch, £9. , 7. £6. " 10. £10. Noiscless, £12.

Gestetner Rotary, £6. Diaphragm, £1.

DEACON, 14 Crooked Lane, E.C. 4. Central 2452.

SMALL ADVERTISEMENTS 1d. a Word.

FOR SALE, Marble-topped Washstands and Chil dren's School Desks. Apply F. T., Box 86, "Workers' Dreadnought" Office.

FOR SALE, Large Coke Stoves, studio style. give great heat at small cost. Apply S. E., Box 90, "Workers' Dreadnought" Office.

FOR SALE, Personal Weighing Machine (Philip and Tacy) as used for Montessori work, Baby Weighing Machine and several Cradles. Apply L. B., Box 101.

TO LET, Furnished, Large Country House near Dorking. Apply Box 100.

IF YOUR Branch could do with a Reliable Typewriter or Duplicator, s e my Advertisement above. Note Prices. Deacon, 14, Crooked Lane, E.C. 4.

TWO COMRADES in dire need seek work. Not particular, but better if for the cause. Can anyone aid? J. B. Jimack Warwick, care of "Dreadnought" Office.

WOOD FENCING for Sale. Particulars on application to M.A., Box 10, "Workers' Dreadnought.

ROOMS TO LET, twenty minutes bus ride from Liverpool Street. Apply E. S., Box 100, Workers Dreadnought Office.

FURNISHED FRONT ROOM for two or three TRUE Communists. Library in different languages at disposal. -- 58, Fortess Road, Kentish Town, N.W.

Published by E. Sylvia Pankhurst at 152, Fleet Street, London, E.C. 4, and printed by S. Corio at 10, Wine Office Court, Fleet Street, London, E.O. 4.