
Negro Resolution:

Passed by the Ohio State Convention of the Socialist Party of Ohio, April 27-30, 1911

Published in The Socialist [Columbus, OH], vol. 1, no. 20 (May 6, 1911), pg. 2.

Whereas the negro in his long training in slavery and being recently emancipated, holds a peculiar position in society, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that we invite the negro to join the Socialist Party, which would give him an equal opportunity to receive the full social product of his labor, and urge that competent speakers be engaged by the State Executive Committee to organize the negro voters of Ohio into the Socialist Party.
