JAPAN READY TO HOLD MANCHURIA AGAINST CHINESE

Raises Fortifications at Strategic Points, Will Close Door of Great Wall

Position Will Be Defended "At Any Cost," as Protectorate Is Announced

DARIEN, Manchuria, June 17.—Japan will hold Manchuria under a virtual "protectorate," it was semi-officially declared here yesterday and a warning amounting to a war threat was issued against any attempt to dislodge her.

The warning couched in the phrase that Japan will maintain peace in Manchuria "at any price" was issued by Yousuke Matsuoka, vice-president of the South Manchurian Railway, an official long connected with the Japanese foreign office at Tokio, and now holding a sort of unofficial post representing the Tokio government here.

Prepares for Siege. Japan has been active during the past week strengthening a number of strategic points which she will hold against attack. Preparations for closing the Great Wall at Shanhai-kwan, at the eastern end, have already been made. Other preparations against attack are being rushed frantically by Japanese military officials. Referring to the Japanese position (Continued on Page Two)

GOAL OF "DAILY" MUST BE REACHED

$1,676.47 Is Urgent at Once in Crisis

Saturday the sum of $741.86 was received at the business office of The DAILY WORKER from loyal readers who have vowed to keep the paper from destruction. In spite of the generous response of the DAILY WORKER army, a considerable amount is still necessary if the paper is to remain alive. In order that the goal of $10,000 be reached—a sum which must be paid to the paper's creditors—$1,676.47 must be raised at once.

Following are the names of the militant workers who contributed on Saturday:

Cal. $6; Branch 5, Sec. 5, Bronx, N. Y., $12.75; Section 5, Branch 4, Bronx, N. Y., $70; Branch 5, Branch 3, Bronx, N. Y., $70; Jacob Maximovich, Detroit, Mich., $5; A Group of Cloakmakers, Los Angeles, (Continued on Page Five)

MILLINER PROTEST MEETING TONIGHT

Call Local 24 Members to Big Rally

In order to lay before the membership of Millinery Local 24 the real reasons for the decision of the right wing general executive board of the International Cloth Hat, Cap and Millinery Workers' Union, to force a fake amalgamation scheme upon the members of Millinery Hand Workers Local 43, and also to expose all the other union-weakening activities of the Zaritsky gang, a mass meeting is being called by the rank and file committee of local 24. The meeting will be held tomorrow evening immediately after work in Bryant Hall, Sixth Ave. and 42nd St.

In a circular which the committee intends to distribute throughout the market the committee calls upon the workers to attend the meeting and thereby take the first step toward halting the recently instituted Zaritsky policy of removing from positions of leadership all those who clash with his policy of surrender to the employers.

The membership of local 24 are appealed to stop "the scandalous conduct of the members of their own executive board who are escorting scabs to take the places of the local 43 members out on strike."

The Zaritsky edict which declares local 43 non-existent and instructs the members of this organization to join local 24, which his clique controls, has met with the stiffest opposition from the members. They have called numerous strikes against employers attempting to help Zaritsky. Many of them were won, and this despite the intense police terror that holds sway in the military district here.

KUN RELEASE RUMOR SEEN AS DECEPTION MOVE

World Workers Demand Prompt Release

VIENNA, June 17. — The pressure of world-wide agitation against the extradition of the Communist leader, Bela Kun, to Hungary, is believed to be responsible for a report here that Kun would soon be released. His execution by the reactionary terrorist government of Hungary is considered certain if he is sent to that country.

The report of an "expected" release, which emanates from ministerial circles here, is probably not based upon any real intention to free the noted prisoner, but is very likely only an effort of the Austrian government to quiet the agitation which has produced some embarrassment to the government. It is not even claimed that the Communist leader of the Hungarian workers will be turned loose immediately, the government stating that he will first be given "a short term in prison for passport irregularities."

A.C.W. RIVAL SIGNS PHILA OPEN SHOP

Beckerman Is Avoiding Graft Searchlight

By signing up the employers in the largest open shop men's clothing manufacturing area in the country, the United Garment Workers' Union of the A. F. of L., severely aggravated the great "embarrassment" now being felt by the Hillman administration in the Amalgamated Clothing Workers' Union, because of the daily exposures of corruption and graft in the New York Joint Board.

The two firms, the King Kard Overall Co. and the S. Abrams Co., both employing a total of 375 workers, signed contracts last Friday with reactionary Rickert's United Garment Workers' Union. This, while not meaning very much to the workers involved, the U. G. W. being no better than a company union, becomes a source of embarrassment for the Hillman machine in the A. C. W. This is because the New York bosses always point to their non-union competitors in Philadelphia as reason for demanding more and more concessions, such as piece work and wage cuts.

Instead of refusing the New York bosses' demands and beginning an organization drive in Philadelphia, the Hillman machine has granted every demand of the employers and done nothing to organize the open shops.

Charge Against Fake Wool Co. Dismissed

BOSTON, June 17. — The Federal Trade Commission announced yesterday that a complaint of the commission against the Suffolk Knitting Mills of this city, charging use of such labels as "all wool" and "100 per cent all wool" to describe sweaters containing a large mixture of cotton has been dismissed by the commission.

Earhart Third of Way Over to Ireland

Amelia Earhart, who hopes to be the first woman to complete a successful flight across the Atlantic, was reported late last night to be more than a third of the way across to Ireland, her first stop.

Funds to Save "Daily" Short $1676; Creditors Give 3 Days

To the Readers of The DAILY WORKER. Comrades:

Only $741.86 was received Saturday in the campaign to save our revolutionary organ. Saturday evening at 6 p. m., the time of the expiration of the ultimatum of creditors of The DAILY WORKER, we were short by $1,676.47 of the necessary funds.

In negotiations with creditors Saturday night, an arrangement was reached by which the time for certain of the payments was extended. Some payments are to be made Monday—today. Other payments can be postponed until Tuesday if necessary, and some Wednesday.

The receipts of the campaign up to Saturday night are:

Table with 2 columns: Day, Amount. Monday $161.99, Tuesday 464.55, Wednesday 556.30, Thursday 576.60, Friday 695.00, Saturday 705.77. Last week (beginning June 10): Monday 1,660.40, Tuesday 661.20, Wednesday 712.65, Thursday 760.40, Friday 716.81, Saturday 741.86.

Total to last Saturday night $8,323.53 Still to be raised 1,676.47

This shortage of $1,676.47 of the sum necessary to pull The DAILY WORKER out of this crisis which threatens its life, must be raised immediately.

Today and tomorrow are crucial days. Funds received now are twice as effective as they would be at a later date. We urge the militant workers who read The DAILY WORKER to respond as generously as possible and quickly.

Today we have made good on one promise—that we would restore our revolutionary organ to the size which has been normal in the past—six pages. We must keep this up, as it is impossible to give the workers the necessary minimum of working class news, and especially information on the coal strike and the formation of the new union of the mine workers, the textile strike, etc., with a four-page paper.

The smallness of the amount received Saturday leaves a dangerous gap. If The DAILY WORKER should fail to receive very substantial sums today and tomorrow, the resulting situation would be very precarious.

We request you therefore to rush every available dollar that you can possibly spare, by telegraph, airmail or special delivery, to The DAILY WORKER, 33 First Street, New York.

THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE.

TEXTILE STRUGGLE ENTERS 10TH WEEK

Picket Lines Balk Plan to Reopen Mills

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 17. —Although it is believed highly improbable that there will be a concerted attempt by the 56 strike-bound textile mills to reopen, organizational activities for the mobilization of strikers to the picket lines Monday morning was the chief task occupying the attention of the Textile Mills Committee yesterday. The ninth week of strike ends today.

The picket lines are to be concentrated around the few mills that have stubbornly, though vainly, attempted to resume partial operation with a handful of secondary foremen and other straw bosses. These are the (Continued on Page Two)

SANDINO HAS 24 U. S. PRISONERS

To Challenge Authority of American Marines

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, June 17. —Twenty-four American prisoners, including 18 U. S. marines are held captive by Augustin Sandino, leader of the Nicaraguan revolutionary forces. This report was brought by Esteban Pavlevitch who arrived here today from Sandino's headquarters in Nicaragua.

He also reported that Sandino won a pitched battle with marines June 11 at Zapote near Bacave. The marines were routed and left a number of dead on the field, including their commander.

After June 14 Sandino will "no longer respect foreign properties except those owned by Spaniards and Latin Americans," Pavlevitch said. The informant stated that Sandino has 2,000 well-armed and equipped men and that with the full development of the rainy season he expected to fight under favorable conditions.

OLD MILL TOWN HANGS ON TO LIFE

Workers Face Starvation in Decayed North Carolina Village

SAXAPAHAW, N. C., June 17 (FP).—Nearly 80 years of life seem to have lent little wisdom to the cotton mill village of Saxapahaw, North Carolina. Trouble has come again to its 175 workers with the mill shut down by a broken dam. The company which took over the plant this year after two years complete closing, tried to continue with the old wood-frame dam across rushing Haw River.

Last March of American Working Class Fighter

Photograph shows last honors being paid to William D. Haywood, American Communist leader, and for many years at the head of the revolutionary labor movement in the United States, who died recently in Moscow. At the left in the photograph is J. Louis Engdahl, representative of the Workers (Communist) Party to the Communist International and formerly editor of The Daily Worker. Chinese, Russian and other workers joined in the tribute.

CARPENTERS LAUNCH MILITANT PROGRAM

Calling upon all carpenters and carpenters' local unions to rally around a militant program and to elect delegates to the coming convention of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, who will support this program, the Progressive Carpenters' Committee of this city yesterday issued a warning of the dangers which the union is facing.

SPORTS FEATURE AT "RED" PICNIC

The Red picnic on June 24th will follow the pattern of great demonstrations such as the Russian workers make of their field days. The Russian sport festivals are Olympian in the best sense of the word, encouraging the youth to develop skill and physical strength, endurance and intelligence such as the working class must have in Soviet Russia to withstand the dangers which beset the First Workers' Republic. Workers' sport festivals, race tracks and fleet (Continued on Page Two)

"While the building industry is still near its production peak," the call declares, there is prevalent throughout the country acute unemployment. The statement traces the complete revolution which has taken place in the building industry. "Today buildings are no longer put up; they are thrown together." The use of substitutes for wood, the ready made production of parts on a large scale with the consequent elimination of workers from the industry, constitute one of the chief issues the carpenters have to face, the call declares.

A Real Program. The National Convention of the Carpenters' Brotherhood will take (Continued on Page Two)

25 MINERS HELD FOR ATTEMPT TO ENTER OWN HALL

Lewis-Fagan Machine Officials Padlock Meeting Room, Jeer at Coal Diggers

State Troopers Round Up Miners Who Are Held in Jail Without Charge

(Special to the Daily Worker)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 17.—The arrest of 25 progressive miners at Avella last night and the padlocking of the hall owned by the local miners' union which has been supporting the Save-the-Union movement, is the latest proof that the Fagan-Lewis machine in the Pittsburgh district is determined to disregard the will and rights of the rank and file of the miners, it was seen here today.

WHITE GUARDISTS OF MANY LANDS IN DONETZ PLOT

Former Czarist Owners Directed Sabotage

(Special Cable to the Daily Worker).

MOSCOW, U. S. S. R., June 17. —With the examination of Deter, one of the engineers accused of criminal sabotage in the huge Schachty district conspiracy against the Soviet Union, a new part of the trial was inaugurated. Upon investigation, it was learned that all evidence so far collected point to a body of foreign counter-revolutionists centering around Charkov. Dvorschanschik, the chief power in control of the former owners of the mines, was proven to have had such confidence in Deter, that he continually sent him sabotage instructions. The Soviet prosecution then went on to find that Pastuchov, manager of the mine, had continually communicated with Kusma and Schadlun in the Charkov central district.

Deter was a representative to the Charkov central conference. He had previously been sent to the Berlin trade conference as a representative of the Donugal group. He denied, however, that he had acted for sabotage. But Matov, a member of the Charkov central committee, asserted that Deter had acted in favor of the sabotage in Berlin. Deter finally admitted that he had received money for his sabotage work from Dvorbegan. He accused Bratanovsky of being among the leaders of the saboschanschik, Matov, and other counter-revolutionaries.

The examination by Krylenko then turned organization. And Bratanovsky, like a hardened criminal, according to reports, calmly admitted his conscious villainy. He said that he was anxious to satisfy the demands of the old czarist owners, because they paid very well for the work he was doing. He admitted receiving money from French former owners. He also asserted that he had received sabotage orders from Deter. The Charkov committee commissioned Bratanovsky to form plans whereby the work of the mines would be obstructed and forced to continue idle. Bratanovsky had a very important (Continued on Page Two)

McNARY JOINS IN G. O. P. BETRAYAL

N.Y. Communists Speed Election Drive

(Special to The DAILY WORKER.)

WASHINGTON, June 17. — The republican landslide of betrayal of the workers and farmers yesterday swept up and carried along another pretender to the position of spokesman for agriculture when Senator McNary of Oregon, sidetracking the equalization fee plan of farm relief, announced his support of the Hoover-Curtis ticket of Wall Street.

McNary, who was one of the chief movers in the agitation over the McNary-Haugen bill announced his own position after a conference with Hoover, yesterday.

Hypocrisy Exposed. Notwithstanding the fact that the republican platform blithely brushes aside farm relief and that no one expects Hoover to do any more for the farmers than he will do for the industrial workers, McNary after the meeting announced that he had found the republican candidate "sympathetic and anxious to believe in the distress of the farm population." The real purpose of McNary's meeting with Hoover became clear when Mc- (Continued on Page Two)

URGENT FIGHT ON FASCIST TERROR

Pilsudski Excesses To Be Scored at Meet

Pointing out the existence of an international terrorist system by which Mussolini attempts to intimidate anti-Fascist workers in other countries, the New York Section of the International Labor Defense, 799 Broadway, in a statement issued yesterday, calls upon the workers of New York to protest against these terrorist activities and to wage an unceasing struggle against international fascism.

The statement, signed by Rose Baron, secretary of the New York Section, follows:

"Not content with oppressing the workers and peasants of Italy and torturing and murdering all those who voice the slightest protest against Mussolini's black-shirted despotism, Italian fascism reaches out into other countries and conducts a systematic campaign of terrorism against Italian workers who presume to oppose its blood-drenched rule.

LETTER REVEALS SHLESINGER FAKE

Further evidence has been offered by the New York Joint Board of the Cloakmakers' Union that the recent flourish of a fake amnesty made by Benjamin Schlesinger, co-partner with Sigman in destroying the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, was a bit of hypocrisy, in making public a letter given to a worker by his boss, which shows that the war on the cloakmakers continues unabated. Schlesinger recently declared that he is halting the attack on the (Continued on Page Five)

Lewis Machine Aids Police Break Up Mine Conference in District Five

HARWICK MEETING HALL SURROUNDED BY SHERIFF ARMY

Many Conferences to Take Over Union

(Special to The DAILY WORKER.) PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 17.—Cooperation of the John L. Lewis administration with the police in an effort to block the miners from taking control of their local and district organizations in preparation for the national miners convention to be held in September, is responsible for the action of the deputy sheriffs and state troopers who broke up a conference of the miners' union of sub-district 7, district 5, at Harwick yesterday, according to information received here today.

Building Union. The sub-district conference was called for the purpose of re-organizing the sub-district to meet the progressive policies adopted by the district convention held on May 23-29 in Pittsburgh, and to elect new sub-district officials. The call for the conference was issued by Tom Myerscough, secretary of the reorganized district 5, immediately after the district convention and many locals in sub-district 1 elected delegates.

When the delegates assembled at the hall of the Harwick local union, one of the progressive locals of the Pittsburgh district, they were confronted by eleven deputy sheriffs, four state troopers and a squire who warned them that they would not be allowed to proceed with the conference.

Many Conferences. The meeting was the first of seven sub-district conferences called to meet within a week in the Pittsburgh district in order to put the decisions of the district convention, which ousted the Lewis administration officials, into effect. Secretary Myerscough expressed the belief that Fagan, with the aid of the police, would attempt to break up the other scheduled conferences, but Myerscough declared that the progressive miners will go through with the conferences despite all interference.

McNARY JOINS IN G. O. P. BETRAYAL

N. Y. Communists Speed Election Drive

(Continued from Page One) McNary announced that he would have nothing further to do with any "bol" in behalf of the agricultural week.

N. Y. Communists Active. With the record of the republican betrayal of the workers and farmers already written in their platform and with the equally certain betrayal by the democrats only a few days off, the Workers (Communist) Party yesterday announced an intensification of its election activities.

In a statement issued by the central executive of the Party, an appeal was issued to all members and sympathizers to speed up the agitation and propaganda for the campaign.

Red Picnic Ahead. The New York state campaign will open with the Red Picnic scheduled for Pleasant Bay Park next Sunday. This event will mark, it is believed, the greatest combined political rally and out-door outing in the history of the New York labor movement. At this political rally will appear not only nearly every important leader of the Workers (Communist) Party but there will be seen as well among the many thousands who will attend the larger body of workers who today are leading the struggle for militant policies in practically every union and who will play the leading role in the great tasks before the American working class.

Sports Will Be Featured at Red Picnic

(Continued from Page One) runners, endurance tests and skill in juggling and wrestling, in games and athletic matches are the forerunners of training for the Red Army. And with this the Russian workers have learned to turn their sport meets, picnics and athletic games into great workers' festivals.

The Red Picnic on June 24th at Pleasant Bay Park is to be the first sport festival of this kind. Pleasant Bay Park is being made ready for the meet, it is announced.

Trainman Killed on Car

Falling beneath a heavy roll of concrete re-enforcing iron wire on a freight car which was being backed into the New York Central railroad yards early yesterday morning, William Slocum, 39, a trainman, was killed when the roll of wire toppled on him, crushing him to the floor of the car.

Farmers Get Cold Shoulder from G. O. P. Convention

After police had thrown a farm delegation out of the republican convention hall for protesting against the nomination of Hoover a sop was thrown the farmers in the shape of the Curtis vice-presidential candidacy. Photo shows members of the farm delegation picketing the convention.

CARPENTERS CALL TO PROGRESSIVES

Launch Plans for Next Convention

place in September but delegates are already being elected. The Progressive Carpenters' Committee has drawn up a program to meet not only the changes going on in the industry and the open shop drive of the employers now taking place but the attack of the union officials who during the past four years have conducted a campaign of persecution and open warfare against all progressive ideas and against progressive local unions and members.

The great majority of the members look upon the union not any more as a means of protection, but merely something that takes from them a certain portion of their wages every three months for being allowed to work in the trade. They are gradually realizing that they can obtain work without belonging to the union and are, therefore, drifting away from the Brotherhood. At the same time, the Brotherhood is securing a decreasing number of new members.

On the contrary, it is pointed out, the officers of the union are using their powers to demolish the organization even further. The charge is made that:

Record of Destruction.

"Since the last National Convention the outstanding events can be recorded: (1) In Denver the men were driven to work on the old basis after a signal victory for the 5-day week. (2) In Detroit the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America was smashed to keep the old administration in power. (3) In New York the District Council was given support in upholding the former officials of Local Union 2717 who were caught redhanded in stealing the funds of the Local Union. The charter of Local Union 376 was revoked on flimsy "constitutional" grounds. (4) In Chicago the steal of the District Council elections was given official approval. (5) In the San Francisco District the strike against the open shop drive was taken over by the National administration and the result was a miserable failure. (6) Throughout the country members have been arbitrarily framed up, fined and expelled because of their stand for the rights and privileges of the membership.

"The following program is proposed as a unifying platform for all progressives and we urge the nomination and election of delegates on the basis of support of this program. Progressive Program. "1. 5-day, 40-hour week. Weekly wages to remain the same as before. "2. Uniform Building Trades agreements to expire at the same time and to include the clause: "ONLY UNION-MADE MATERIAL TO BE USED." All agreements to be ratified by a vote of the membership. "3. Job control through a steward to be elected by the men on the job. This to eliminate indiscriminate hire and fire by the bosses and to eliminate the speed-up system. "4. Joint drive with all other unions to organize the unorganized with the slogan, "A 100 Percent Organized Industry."

"5. United action with all other crafts for the enforcement of wage scales and union working conditions. "6. For a state unemployment fund to be administered by local unions. "7. To call a national convention for the amalgamation of all Building Trades International Unions. "8. Mass violations of all injunctions in labor disputes, struggle against the enactment of the Federal Anti-Strike Law and for a LABOR PARTY based on the labor unions. "9. Democracy in our union with full expression of opinions without discrimination, restoration of revoked charters and full reinstatement of all members expelled for their opposition to Hutchison. "10. For limitation of the powers of the general president, and for a convention every two years."

Support Appeals.

The call ends with the reminder that there are pending before the com-

Expel Student for "Cutting" College Chapel

BOSTON, June 17.—Demanding her reinstatement and claiming intrigue in her expulsion from Wheaton College, Miss Bertha Ludwig, of West New Brighton, S. I., has brought suit in Supreme Court for $25,000 damages. Benjamin Sanderson has been named as master.

Miss Ludwig charged that she had been expelled for the reason that the college dean and two students did not "like her." The charges against her are that she made "unnecessary noise" in her room after 10 p. m., cut chapel services, and burned incense in her room.

She was to have been graduated from Wheaton College this month.

no savings to live on in an emergency. Six young mouths to feed besides the parents. 15 years at this place, except during the shutdown when they became tenant farmers.

Saxapahaw's old houses are not the showplaces of southern mill men's bragging. For years nothing has been done to them. They scramble over the hillside above the mill on rusty red clay roads. Most of them have little trace of past paint coats on their plain boards. Some of the workers have tried to hide with bits of gardens and flower boxes but others stand nakedly out of the wild grass.

Decay.

True the company has promised new "covers" and "talks about bringing water to the houses." The one newly finished room shines out with its new shingles and makes its neighbors look more than ever shabby. Workers draw water from hillside springs, into which drainage from houses above seeps down—just as in old times. An old former resident sees little change in the town from Civil War days.

One old house, still occupied, he remembers sent five workers to the mill in the '50s. One went off to work with his father, a farmer. The Saxapahaw mill was one of four in Alamac county operating when the Civil War began. When it was founded in 1849 it was one of the earliest cotton mills in the south.

The mill still makes gingham, bleaching, dyeing and finishing in its own small plant. It ships by truck to the nearest railroad, over 10 miles away. Alamac county boasts of 21 small mills similar to Saxapahaw and many of them on the same Haw river, hidden away in farming sections off the main highways.

Heflin, Klan Employee, Unhurt as Stand Falls

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 17.—Thousands of people, gathered around a wooden platform from which Senator J. Thomas Heflin, speaking in the pay of the Ku Klux Klan, against Al Smith, big business' alternative with Hoover for the presidency.

These are the appeals of Fred Bobzin of Chicago, Bud Reynolds of Detroit, Joseph Lapidus of New York City and Local Union 376. The carpenters are urged to elect delegates who favor this program. Those who know of any grievances are requested to send information to the Progressive Carpenters' Committee, Room 311, 96 Fifth Ave., New York City.

JAPAN READY TO HOLD MANCHURIA AGAINST ATTACK

Raises Fortifications at Strategic Points

in Manchuria, Matsuoka did not hesitate over the fact that Japanese control there was intended to be permanent. "Call it a protectorate, if you will," he said.

Embarrassing—But "I admit this is little to put us in an embarrassing position, but Manchuria is our first line of defense," he declared further, "but there are times when a firm attitude is essential and this is one of them."

While this attitude of Japan was being enforced through the "unofficial" declaration of Matsuoka, the so-called Nationalist government made public a request of the United States government for the negotiation of a new treaty which will revise the existing agreements between the two countries. This is seen as a virtual request for recognition from the Washington government. The request is based on the recent statement by the U. S. that she would recognize any responsible government at Keking—meaning, of course, any government which would repress the working class and peasant revolutionary movement.

Bids for Support.

NANKING, June 17.—The so-called Nationalist government made a further bid for the support of the imperialist powers here yesterday by promising a continued campaign against the Communists and left wing labor organizations.

TEXTILE STRIKE OPENS 10TH WEEK

Plan Big Picket Lines for This Morning

Whitman, Wamsutta, Page, Sharp and Hathaway mills. It is generally conceded that the utter failure of these plants to reopen successfully, due to the picketing demonstrations, is the only thing that discourages the bosses from attempting the gesture of a general reopening.

Admit Success of Picketing.

Even the officials of the A. F. of L. Textile Council are now using the picketing tactics of the T. M. C. Formerly they had made statements to the press ridiculing the picketing of mills which their owners had said would not be reopened. This change of front was made when they saw that picketing was rallying increasing thousands of strikers to membership in the T. M. C., while the council lost continually in influence.

Jackson W. Wales, a second year student in Harvard University, who for some time has been associated with the Textile Mills Committee, pleaded not guilty to two charges of disorderly conduct. He will come up for trial Monday.

Bosses' Relieved of Texas.

While the city politicians at the head of the charity boards and also of the relief committee organized by the A. F. L. union are declaring that there are no funds for strikers' relief, the city government of New Bedford announced that 22 of the city's 26 textile corporations have been granted an abatement of 1926-1927 taxes amounting to a total of $248,922.

its greatest financial support, must carry on an unceasing struggle against this modern inquisition, which has discovered tortures more subtle and terrible than were ever dreamed of by the professional torturers of the middle ages. Fascism is confined not to Italy alone, but rages in Hungary, Poland, Spain and in other lands; with the active support of all other capital countries, particularly the United States. A blow against the fascism of our country is a blow against fascism the world over. On Tuesday, June 19 at 8 p. m., a meeting has been arranged by the Committee Against Polish Fascism to protest against the sentencing of 37 members of the White Russian Hromada Party to long-prison terms in Pilsudski's dungeons. The meeting will be held in Irving Plaza, 15th St. and Irving Place. The International Labor Defense calls upon all class-conscious workers of New York to show their solidarity with the victims of fascisms all over the world by attending this great protest meeting."

PORCH CLIMBING NEW TACTICS OF ZARITSKY

BOSTON, June 17.—In his efforts to destroy the Boston Capmakers' Local 7, Max Zaritsky, president of the Cap and Millinery Workers' Union, also the services of gentlemen who climb porches and enter houses thru the windows for a living.

Rifle Desks.

This was demonstrated when the left wing leaders of the Capmakers' Union here entered the union headquarters and found the doors, windows and desks jimmied open and papers strewn about in great confusion. Every available depository for records and documents had been rifled.

However, nothing more valuable than the charter of affiliation to the international was in the office. This they took.

This is the second step in the campaign of Zaritsky and his clique-controlled general executive board to break up a union that has grown powerful under its militant leadership.

After falling in attempts to remove the leadership by special elections, in which Zaritsky candidates were soundly spanked by the membership, Zaritsky tried a "putsch" a la Mussolini. This occurred last Thursday at a union membership meeting, Zaritsky came to this meeting armed with a ukase by the general executive board which gave him the authority to remove the legally elected leadership of the union and replace it with appointees from among his own henchmen.

Fails in Coup d'Etat.

Despite the squad of police he came prepared with, Zaritsky was forced by the membership to leave the hall. With the few that followed him out Zaritsky held a meeting in another hall and announced that the handful of right wingers that met with him are now the new officials of the union. Zaritsky's latest exploit, while of an extremely low character, fails to measure up to the less spectacular and yet more vicious work he himself is doing. He is drumming at the doors of all the bosses here and is promising them alluring concessions at the workers expense — if they would but withdraw recognition from the union that receives the memberships' support.

position in the Donnag Trust Co. He stated that the majority of his fellow officers and engineers are members of the sabotage organization. He claimed that he had been elected to the Soviet after the February revolution, and because of this he claims he had the friendship of the workers. His membership in the Soviet ceased after the October revolution. He described the Charkov central body, its methods of finance, its structure, etc. The high position of Bratanovsky and the rest of the plotters in the Donnag enabled them to form an efficient sabotage.

Sent Reports to Former Owners.

The Charkov central body supervised this sabotage, and sent reports of its progress to the former congress and council of South Russian imperialist mine owners abroad. The aim of the central body was to gain influence over trade and union leaders and arouse discontent among the workers. For this purpose it received money from the former White Guardist owners of the mines. In this scheme the French industrialists also gave financial aid. Bratanovsky stated that German firms were also involved in the financial aid for the project against the Soviet Union.

Aim Counter-Revolution.

The further examination of Bratanovsky confirms these methods and aims of the sabotage organization. He said that the central body arranged the sabotage, communicated with Paris and Warsaw anti-Soviet organizations and with the central bodies of German firms. He admitted that the aim of the conspiracy was to execute an economic and political counter-revolution with the ultimate goal of overthrowing the Soviet control of the mines.

In order to accomplish this, he stated, there had been an intensive study on the part of the treacherous organization of the Soviet economic and political situation of the Russian Communist Party. In replying to Krylenko he said that the organization had established contacts with foreign governments which had supplied the money for the venture. The central body, he confirmed, had kept both Poland and France posted on the mine situation.

The intervention and complicity of these foreign countries in the plot had greatly helped the sabotage. There had been extensive sabotage propaganda spread among the workers. Further revelations were that Bleiman, the director of the Russian department, had promised him 10,000 rubles.

What are the various sections of the Communist International doing? Germany, France, U. S., England, Italy?

What are their achievements, shortcomings and future tasks?

B. Vasiliev, reviewing this pamphlet in the May 1 issue of the Communist International, says:

"Every active member of every Communist Party in capitalist countries must have a copy of Comrade Piatnitsky's little book among the number of absolutely necessary handbooks on everyday Party work."

LETTERS OF WORKERS WHO FIGHT TO SAVE "DAILY"

"This morning I got a job, here's my $2;" Workers, Jobless or Employed, Fired College Professor, Determined Revolutionary Organ Shall Live

A letter from one of the most savagely exploited groups of workers in the country:

Gary, Ind.

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed find $25. The steel workers of Gary need The DAILY WORKER, which fights for the rights of the workers of the world. This money was raised at a picnic held the other day.
COMMITTEE OF STEEL WORKERS.

The DAILY WORKER fights against the ruthless system that scraps old and incapacitated workers without making any provisions to enable them to live. And here is how a 75-year-old worker feels about the workers' paper:

Bridgeport, Conn.

Dear Comrades:—
Please accept my little mite of $1 to save The DAILY WORKER. I wish I could give you $75; that just would be one dollar for each-year of my life time since I was born in 1853. On the first of last May it was 11 years since I am out of work and never got a job as toolmaker again. Materially I cannot help you any more, but I do so by talking to the people about Communism as the only remedy to get free from capitalism.
I was glad to hear in your paper about Mrs. Parsons, widow of Albert Parsons, that she is alive yet. After the Haymarket affair, she spoke in New Haven where I resided at that time and was on her reception committee.
Fraternally yours,
ADOLPH MEYER.

Walter M. Trumbull, who together with Paul Crouch helped to form a Communist League among the American soldiers in Hawaii, is now in a sanitarium suffering from tuberculosis. The original of this disease may be traced to his experience in Alcatraz Prison, where he and Crouch spent several years for their revolutionary activity. In a letter from the sanitarium he writes:

Dear Comrades:—
Because I am at present a patient in the Maybury T. B. Sanitarium, I've been unable to make a contribution of my own, having no income.
But I have interested an employee at the sanitarium to the extent of his contribution of $3, which I enclose herewith. I may be down, but not out. I can do that much for the 'Daily.'
Yours for saving our "Daily".
WALTER M. TRUMBULL.
Philadelphia.

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed find a check for $45 to save The DAILY WORKER. This is the third shipment of donations from Philadelphia during the last few days ($77.50, $69 and $45). I believe that at least one more check will follow this week. We must have the "Daily" and more than that—an eight-page "Daily." I am confident that the revolutionary vanguard of the workingclass of the country will fulfill its duty.
A. SOKOLOV, "Daily Worker" agent.

A sympathetic organization sends $15 and writes:

Dear Comrades:—
As a good number of our members are readers of our militant "Daily," we decided to help the paper at once. By unanimous vote it was decided to donate $15, for which you find check enclosed. We are an organization to enable workers' children to spend their vacations out in the country.
MODERN SUNDAY SCHOOL CAMP ASSOCIATION, INC.
JACK FEURER, Secretary.
New Haven, Conn.

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed is a check of $10 from the New Haven branch of the Workers (Communist) Party to help meet the crisis. More money will be rushed at once.
S. S. KRESAS, Secretary.

The efforts of many units of the Workers (Communist) Party has done a great deal to keep the paper alive. Street Nucleus 11, Section 4, Chicago, writes:

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed you will find a check for $14. At the last meeting we decided that every member should give a day's wages for our revolutionary paper. The rest of the money will be sent in a few days. We are sure that every worker must do the same, because if he is able to work for the bosses 365 days a year, he must work at least one day for the paper that is leading all the oppressed against the slavery of the capitalist system.
STREET NUCLEUS 11, SEC. 4, CHICAGO.

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed you will find $1 in answer to your call for money to save The DAILY WORKER. I feel very sad that I am not able to send to the satisfaction of my feelings towards The DAILY WORKER. I only wish that I could send a million times more than this meagre sum for the greatest of all causes.
M. AGLIAIU.

A worker in Hanna, Wyoming, donates a day's wages:

Comrades:—
Here you will find enclosed a postal money order for $8 for The DAILY WORKER as my donation to help the "Daily" out of its crisis. This is my one day's wages donation, and I would hope that every reader, friend and sympathizer of The DAILY WORKER will do the same.
Fraternally yours,
FRANK J. VHTA AHO.

This letter speaks for itself:

Dear Comrades:—
Here is my $2 to save The DAILY WORKER, that I gladly sacrifice being unemployed for a long time. This morning I got a job and tonight I feel my legs all broken so that I think I couldn't stand up to go back tomorrow. The bosses become wolves more each year. We hope that these cruelties would end some day and I will fight on to the end.
Fraternally yours,
G. MICHELINI, a concrete worker.

Another Workers Party unit shows the way:

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed find $15 for The DAILY WORKER from Street Nucleus 2, Pittsburgh. I sent you Tuesday $55, Thursday $20, and now $15. This will be $90. Wishing success in your campaign,
MAX JENKIN.
P. S.—I will send more money soon.

Dear Comrades:—
I have seen your appeal in the Radnik, the paper of the Jugo-Slav workers, that the DAILY WORKER needs help. We went out and collected a little from the people and we received $11. I am also sending you a subscription for six months for a worker here. I am doing the best I can to show the people the right way to organize and support The DAILY WORKER which is the only paper in the English language which is protecting the interests of the laboring class.
SOJON MIKASINOVIK.
Mingo Junction, O.

A worker in Norwalk, O., writes:
Dear DAILY WORKER Comrades:—
Enclosed find two dollars toward sustaining our DAILY WORKER. Who would want to go back to the days of being without it? I would call that a real calamity. It is not indifference on our part that we can not respond to all of the needs of the paper, but money is so damn scarce.
But that trouble is nothing, as compared to the worries and hardships of the comrades who are making possible The DAILY WORKER. It is "the University in Print" for the workers and we must keep it at all costs. The new feature of the paper, Handouts, is a very clever little column, and we enjoy it immensely.
Best wishes to The DAILY WORKER.
ANNE HOLLAND.
Highland Falls, N. Y.

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed you will find a money order for $2, my bit for the DAILY WORKER. I am hoping that every comrade will give some little amount toward it, so it may keep on growing, because it is the best daily paper that fights for the workers.
Long Live the DAILY WORKER.
Comrade KUCERA.

The following brief letter reveals the spirit in which workers all over the country are responding to The DAILY WORKER'S call for help:

Dear Comrades:—
Fight on for the life of the DAILY WORKER! Here is my $2 worth of ammunition. Sorry I can't do more for my paper.
Yours for Communism,
GUIDO D'ANDREA.

From Chicago comes the following spirited communication:

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed please find check for $10. I am very sorry I can't give more at present. Will try to make up for it, though, by making other comrades realize the importance of giving. I fervently hope we'll come out all right.
Yours, M. BAUMSTEIN.

Dear Comrades:—
At the meeting of the International Branch of the International Labor Defense of Wilmington, Del., we took the question of the "Daily" up for discussion. I am glad to say that we were able to raise the amount of $16.50. The two delegates from Wilmington to the National Nominating Convention of the Workers (Communist) Party, George Newcombe, of Arden, Del., and Esther Markizon, of Wilmington, gave $2.90 each, which is the amount paid to them for expenses to the convention. This makes a total of $22.30.
Comradely yours,
ESTHER MARKIZON.

Here is a letter from a non-party member who nevertheless realizes the role The DAILY WORKER plays in the struggle of the working class:

Dear Sirs:—
Please find enclosed check for $5 to help you move and weather your present crisis. I wish I could send you more. I don't belong to the party, but I would hate to see The DAILY WORKER go under, as it is the best labor paper that I have ever read.
Wellington, Ohio.
W. LONG.

This worker calls The DAILY WORKER his "best friend":

Dear Comrades:—
Enclosed you will find a money order for $2 as a contribution to The DAILY WORKER. I would be very sorry if I should have to miss my best friend. I am very sorry that I am not able to send more, but my husband has been out of work for a long time.
With the best wishes for a long life to the DAILY WORKER,
Mrs. A. NEWMAN.
Peabody, Mass.

Dear Comrades:—
You will find enclosed a money order for the sum of $10. This fund was collected by our unit, District 1, Section 7. This is only a temporary contribution, as we will try to raise more funds to keep the DAILY WORKER going.
Comradely yours,
FRANK POLISCHUK.

The following letter from Utica shows the class-conscious spirit of those who are aiding The DAILY WORKER in its struggle to weather its present financial crisis:

Dear Comrades:—
We know that the DAILY WORKER is in need of money very badly. We also know that The DAILY WORKER is the only working-class paper printed in the English language. We realize that it is our duty and the duty of every other comrade to support this paper in the best way we can. We hope that other cities will pay attention to the call of The DAILY WORKER and help as much as they possibly can. Our collection tonight amounted to $22.70. Therefore we enclose a money order for that amount.
Yours truly,
LEONA RIMKUS.
Astoria, L. I.

Dear friends:—
Enclosed find five dollar bill to help along the good work. Hoping you get the rest to keep going.
Yours truly,
P. ROWLEY.

Sol Auerbach, young instructor of philosophy, was recently expelled from the University of Pennsylvania for speaking favorably of conditions in the Soviet Union. Auerbach knows that The DAILY WORKER is fighting in this country for everything that the Soviet Union stands for, and tho he is now out of a job, he has sent a contribution with the following letter:

Dear Comrades:—
Here is $5 out of my last pay from the University of Pennsylvania. The one militant pivot point in the American labor movement, The DAILY WORKER, must be kept swinging.
Fraternally yours,
SOL AUERBACH.

Another letter from an unemployed worker:

Dear Comrades:—
Seeing in your paper that you need funds, I am enclosing a small sum of $2. I have a family to support and have been out of work for the last 14 months. I should hate to see our paper fall, for that is the only paper for workingclass people. If I could have helped more, I would have sent you more, but I just couldn't. And if I ever get a job, I will help you the best I can!
Your sincere comrade,
PAUL DE PAWLIS.

That The DAILY WORKER is really a workers' newspaper, one that is important to and loved by the masses, is proven by the fact that very few of those who donated money to the fund spoke of pulling "you" through the crisis. Most of the letters read "I hope we will come through this crisis stronger than ever." The workers of America do not look upon The DAILY WORKER as something foreign to themselves. They identify themselves with it.
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Comrades:—
Enclosed you will find a check for $31. This money was collected at the meeting of our section 7 last night.
We hope it will help to take our Daily through its present plight.
Comradely yours,
A. SAVOY, financial secretary.

A young school girl writes:
Comrades:
The DAILY WORKER will not be suppressed if the working masses can help it. I'm a young girl, not suffering as much as others, but I am for the liberty of my class. Here is my contribution ($2.50). If I could afford more, I would send it. Some social clubs will also send their contributions thru my recommendation.
Success, and may your and my class thrive, may we see liberty for the crushed masses ushered in soon.
Comradely,
VIVIANNE ZELNICK.
New York, N. Y.

Comrades:
Please find enclosed a one-dollar bill to save The DAILY WORKER, the only workingclass paper in the English language. Please comrades hold on to The DAILY WORKER. Don't let it die and leave our enemies to rejoice.
READER OF THE DAILY WORKER.

The intensity of feeling of many of the writers of letters to The DAILY WORKER is an indication of the place the paper holds in the workers' lives. The following is a good example:

Dear Comrade Minor:
In reply to your communication of June 2, notifying us about the plight of The DAILY WORKER on account of lacking funds, I am sending you a check for the amount of $15. I am hoping that all of the comrades will realize the necessity and worth of The DAILY WORKER, as the fighting organ of the working class, and help you to continue your work in the future as you have done in the past.
Fraternally yours,
J. SHAFFER.
Worcester, Mass.

Comrade:
At a regular membership meeting of Nucleus 3, Section 1, of the Workers (Communist) Party of Worcester, Mass., many comrades responded to The DAILY WORKER'S call for help. Their contributions make it possible for us to send in a check for $15.
Fraternally yours,
D. H. KAUFFMAN, secretary.

After being unemployed all winter, a worker finally got a job and immediately sent $2 to The DAILY WORKER. He writes:

Dear Comrades:
Enclosed you will find $2 to keep up the best paper of the workers in the U. S. A. I have not worked all winter. I got me a job now and I wish 10,000 workers would send you a dollar or two each.
I work in a freight house, pulling a truck like a mule and conditions are pretty bad here as we have the speed-up system. I will be very sorry if our paper should discontinue. I am a foreigner and can't write much. Long live Russia! Down with all capitalist governments!
J. V.

A facetious note was struck by one worker in a letter in which he enclosed $3:

Dear Comrades:
I am sending you $3 as my "princely" contribution towards the saving of the "Daily's" life.
What's the idea of squandering all the millions you get from Moscow and then go a-begging for a handout? You surely have a bunch of bum financiers in your office. Kick 'em out! (I hope Judge Panken didn't copyright that expression.)
Comradely yours,
MAX MANDEL.

Dear Comrades:
Shop Nucleus 1, Yukon, Pa., recognizes the grave financial condition of The DAILY WORKER at the present time. So we are sending you $4. We regret that we cannot send you more because of the bad employment conditions.
DANY LOCHEN, secretary.

Workers' organizations have responded generously to the appeal for funds to save The DAILY WORKER. The following letter is typical:

Dear Comrades:
The Russian Workers' Progressive Club is sending you a money order for $25 to help The DAILY WORKER. Long life for The DAILY WORKER.
E. MICKLISH.
Denver, Col.

Dear Comrades:
Just read the headline of The DAILY WORKER: "Grave Crisis May Close DAILY WORKER Soon." I am enclosing $5 to help out a little.
MRS. ARMINTA HOAR.

The response from unemployed workers has been unusually generous and many of them have written touching letters. Here is a worker who sends $5 despite the fact that capitalist "prosperity" is denying him a means of making a living:

Dear Comrades:
I am a long time reader of The DAILY WORKER and sympathizer, but I am long out of a job and I am sorry I cannot send more help. Today I send with my wife $5 as help to the paper.
JOHN STEPHANOU.

The DAILY WORKER is the only English language newspaper that fights for the oppressed colonial peoples. Class-conscious Chinese workers have learned that The DAILY WORKER is the constant, steadfast supporter of the struggle of the Chinese workers and peasants against their native bourgeoisie and the foreign imperialists. The following letter is eloquent testimony of the sentiment of the militant Chinese workers of New York towards the "Daily":

Dear Comrades:
Enclosed please find banknotes amounting to $11. This is the first collection of our organization to meet the $10,000 drive of The DAILY WORKER. We hope a further sum can be raised in our next membership meeting.
Hoping the fund will be successfully raised,
Yours for The DAILY WORKER,
CHINESE WORKERS' AND PEASANTS ALLIANCE.
LIU TANG, chairman.

A reader makes the unique proposal that workers donate the money they spend on tobacco and cigarettes to help save the "Daily." She herself is cutting out coffee for six months and turning the money over to The DAILY WORKER.

Dear Comrades:
I am enclosing to you to help keep the "Daily" on its legs $1. In addition, I am cutting out my usual one cup of coffee a day and agree to send the cost for six months to The DAILY WORKER. I propose that all the comrades who love their pipes and cigarettes as well as I do my coffee should cut their tobacco and send the amount to The DAILY WORKER. Today I cannot afford to buy coffee at five cents and also give that amount to The DAILY WORKER. I choose to aid the "Daily" to live and prosper.
ELLEN WETHERELL.
Boston.

An unemployed Portuguese worker, living in Brooklyn, sends $2 with the following letter:

Dear Comrades:
Last year in Providence I casually came to know about our "Daily," and when I read it, I was very glad to know that we had a real fighting paper. I am a Communist by heart and principles and am 35 years old. As soon as I get employment I will join the Workers Party. And tho I am not a member, I have been working in different ways.
Enclosed find $2 to help the "Daily." Would like to send more, but am out of work.
EDUARDO TAVARES.

Dear Comrades:
Enclosed find $15 collected at an affair held by Unit 3 of Harlem for the benefit of The DAILY WORKER.
Comradely yours,
S. KRENK, secretary.

Sixty-seven years old and out of work 16 months—yet The DAILY WORKER must be saved, and so he sends a dollar bill.

Dear Comrades:
I am enclosing you a one dollar bill which is all that I can do as I am out of work for 16 months and cannot get any kind of work. I am living in hopes that I will be able to get to Soviet Russia. Altho I am 67 years old, I am just as active as a boy and possibly I would be able to give long years of service in Soviet Russia in my trade as a tinplate worker.
I hope that sufficient support will be given in time to save The DAILY WORKER for the sake of the oppressed toilers of this and other lands, for whom it so energetically fights. Its fall at this time would be a great calamity for the oppressed.
THOMAS M. WILLIAMS.

This worker also realizes the importance of The DAILY WORKER:

Dear Comrades:
I realize what a terrible blow the workingclass will receive if The DAILY WORKER is suspended, so I am sending $5 to help keep it alive.
STEVE MORASKY.

FIFTY RIVETERS WALK OUT IN PROTEST AGAINST DOUBLE WORK AT SUN SHIPYARDS

(By a Worker Correspondent)
CHESTER, Pa. (By Mail).—At the Sun Shipyards fifty riveters have walked off the job because of a request by the foreman that they drive rivets at two cents apiece. They have been working on "ear floats" and driving face rivets at two cents each. If given the work they have been able to make $1,000 per hour.

The request that caused the trouble was that they drive the same type of rivet with two additional operations, i. e., chip the loose hanging ends and set it all the way around with riveting machine or gun.

These two operations make more than double work. Hence the walkout. They have no committee or leader, as I can understand. I am looking for further developments. —S.

Arrest Young Worker League Member in Kenosha, Correspondent Writes

UNION OFFICIALS FIGHT MILITANTS WITH POLICE AID

Send "Observers" to Meeting

(By a Worker Correspondent)
KENOSHA, Wis. (By Mail). — Kindly publish the enclosed statement which was issued to the hosiery strikers at the Allen-A mill in Kenosha after the events it describes had taken place.

Striker.
Something has occurred which we think is necessary to bring to your attention. It reveals the revolutionary nature of one of the strike leaders to such an extent that we know the strikers and workers of Kenosha will repudiate such actions on his part.

All of you, we are sure, will remember the monster mass meeting called by the "Committee of 1000" in the square outside the city hall last Monday, June 4th. At this meeting one of our representatives, Samuel A. Herman, was present and was asked by several workers and strikers to speak. Only after our number had been urged by quite a number of workers to speak, and it was quite evident that no one else would address the crowd, did he consent to say a few words. He called upon the workers to stand solidly together with the strikers to help them picket the Allen-A. Co., and help the strikers out financially as this was not only a strike of 380 workers against the Allen-A. Co. but a strike of the workers of Kenosha against the open shop interests of Kenosha.

Urge Arrest.
No sooner did our representative utter a few words than Mr. Harold Steele, vice-president of the American Federation of Full-Fashioned Hosiery Workers, urged the police to arrest him. To the workers who witnessed this uncalled for incident it was a startling surprise. The workers had previously known only of cases where officials of the open shop Allen-A. Co. urged police to arrest strikers. But this was quite different, a union official ordering the police to arrest a member of a working-class youth organization, The Young Workers League. We later learned that the reason the arrest was not made was because the police feared it would result in tremendous protests from the thousands of workers present.

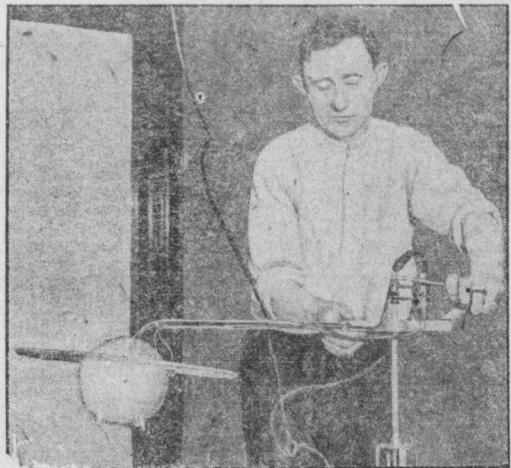

Hand in Hand With Police.
Why was Steele so anxious to have our speaker arrested? The Young Workers League had issued several bulletins to the strikers to conduct mass picketing all day long and throughout the week instead of neglecting to picket the mill or engaging in occasional picketing for a half-hour at a time only two or three times weekly. We urged the strikers to picket about both mills of the Allen-A. Co. and to make special efforts to call out the unorganized, unskilled workers, who are at present working for the Allen-A. Co. and piling up profits, which the firm uses to break the strike. We pointed out to the strikers the growing number of scabs that the company has been able to hire because the strikers did not conduct mass picketing from early in the morning until the evening, thus enabling the scabs to come to the company in the morning without any picket line being present.

We called upon the strikers to force their leadership to take some militant action to win the strike. No sooner did we point these things out to the workers, than the Steele-Budenz leadership began to become alarmed. Unwilling to engage in a real fight against the Allen-A. Co., unwilling to lead the strikers on the picket line and to inspire the workers by their presence, unwilling to call out the unskilled Allen-A. workers in the other mill across the street, the reactionary leadership began a campaign against the Young Workers League. They started the attack against us by slandering our organization, though they know we have a record of participating courageously in all struggles of the working class youth.

On Wednesday, June 6, while helping the strikers picket, during the noon hour our member was arrested by police in a vicious manner. The police claimed later that the leaders of the strike did not want members of our organization around the strikers. The reason is plain. The leadership is afraid that our influence will grow among the strikers. They are afraid that the strikers will demand some real militant policy from their reactionary leaders. So the leaders are resorting to the most contemptible methods used by the open shop Allen-A. Co. against the strikers by ordering our arrest.

On Friday, June 8, the Young

CALLS ON SEAMEN TO FORM STRONG UNION

(By a Worker Correspondent)
The bureau of labor statistics of the United States department of labor recently made public a statement of the results of its survey of the amounts actually paid seamen in accident settlements, comparing these with the amounts which would be payable under the provisions of the Longshoremen's Act.

Covering 1,195 cases, the investigation showed, according to the bureau, that in the 839 cases not involving litigation, the average gross settlement was $1,317.03, while the estimated net settlement was $798.22, as compared with an average estimated settlement of $821.07 under the provisions of the compensation act.

Under the provisions of the act, the usual legal fee was found to be 50 per cent, in spite of the fact that the maritime law has long provided that seamen who are sick or injured while employed shall be entitled to treatment and wages until the end of the voyage. An injured seaman is nearly always obliged to sue the company thru a lawyer.

Silas B. Axtell, who is the attorney for the International Seamen's Union and the right-hand man of Andrew Furuseth, president of the union, won notoriety recently when he was tried as an ambulance chaser. Axtell doesn't have to employ chasers, however, as the International Seamen's Union apparently is made to do the chasing for him. Nearly all injured seamen's cases handled by Axtell are never tried in court. The victim is compelled to wait, sometimes for years, and then Axtell gives him a paltry sum which he calls a settlement. Or he gives nothing at all.

One is compelled to question the ing of workers at the German American Home where the lessons of the Allen-A. Co. strike were to be discussed. It was evident that the striking knitters received instructions from the union officials not to attend this meeting; for only a few of them were present. It was apparent that some of these were observers sent in by the union officials.

The meeting presented a remarkable sight. The hall was surrounded by police. Detectives took down every word of the speakers. Here was a convincing proof to all the workers of Kenosha how the exploiters fear the militant policies and leadership of the Young Workers League and the Workers (Communist) Party. But strange to say, side by side with the bosses' police and detectives, were the unofficial observers sent in by the union officials. At the conclusion of the meeting, these observers followed the car in which the speakers were driving, around the corner.

We are sure that all workers will condemn the united front of certain officials of the union with the Allen-A. Co. controlled police against us because we are advocating militant strike policies in order to win the strike. The rank and file of the knitters have never sanctioned such action of the union officials as are described above.

We say to the union officials: Fight the Allen-A. Co. and not the militants of the labor movement. We will not be intimidated. We will continue the struggle in behalf of the heroic locked-out workers. Our slogans remain as before: Fight for the recognition of the union! Fight against the two machine speed-up system! Fight for a 44-hour week and two weeks vacation with pay! Picket in mass! Call out the unorganized! Win the strike. (Signed) YOUNG WORKERS LEAGUE OF AMERICA, KENOSHA LOCAL.

OLD SCAB AIDS LEWIS WAR ON PROGRESSIVES

Fights Save-Union Movement

(By a Worker Correspondent)
YORKVILLE, O. (By Mail).—I am writing to you about a man who belongs to the John L. Lewis machine. When we miners went on strike April 1, of this year, Joe Vince, a checkweighman from Butte mine went to work for the Wheeling Steel Corporation at Yorkville. He worked there for over a year as a flunkie "bossing" as we call it.

But now, as the Save-the-Union has got too strong for the reactionary sub-district officials, they have called on him to help them break the strike. Sucker that he is, he quit his job at the scab hole, as the Wheeling Company is known to be, and took the job for the reactionary officers.

And now he is going around local unions, trying to get the men to sign the "yellow dogs." Listen, my dear union brothers when Joe Vince or any other reactionary tries to get you to sign that "yellow dog," throw him out of your hall head first. Because such action is what we call strikebreaking.

This man has also refused to help the relief work. He was working a year and a half around that hole of a Wheeling Steel Corporation while we coal miners were on the picket line getting clubbed, arrested and jailed and trying to get the scabs out. Now he is going around preaching to the people that the Save-the-Union movement is trying to break the strike.

But, brothers, who is it that is trying to break the strike? It is the skunks, low down robbers, thieves, traitors, and strikebreakers like John Cinque, Adolphe Pacifico, Walter Jukovich and Joe Vince.

We also want to thank the National Miners' Relief Committee for the relief they sent to Yorkville, O. Please publish this so all the good union brothers will know what kind of officials we have in Ohio.

—R. J.

Moskvin Is Superb in "The Station Master" at the Cameo

At the time Moskvin appeared with the Moscow Art players in this country, he received many offers from motion picture companies to appear in a production to be made in Hollywood. There is still a well-founded report that United Artists have him under contract. He recently appeared in an old Russian film called "Polykushka" and his next appearance will be at the Cameo Theatre in "The Station Master," a Sovkino production which opens today.

In the estimate of most critics "Czar Ivan the Terrible" achieved the highest level in individual characterization. This general judgement was arrived at before "The Station Master" was seen featuring Ivan Moskvin. It is the contention of most of the well-known European critics that in "The Station Master," Moskvin creates an almost perfect cinema portrait and even the German experts considered his performance superior to that of Jannings in "The Last Laugh." In fact many of them call "The Station Master" "a Russian 'Last Laugh'."

The people's party supported Graef for the third vice-presidency, in defiance of the coalition moves of the other parties.

WORKERS MERELY ASKED PAY FROM MELON "QUEEN"

Case Made to Appear Holdup

(By a Worker Correspondent)
LOS ANGELES, Cal. (By Mail).—According to reports from El Centro, Imperial Valley, Cal., William Williams, alias Joaquin Ojara, 35, Meland, was jailed recently for failure to pay wages. This is in the zone of the recent strike in the cantaloupe fields "Strong-Armed" Wage Collectors Arrested.

Another report in The Brawley News reads as follows: "El Centro June 1.—Seven laborers accused by Miss A. Girardo, 'cantaloupe queen,' of having forced her to write a check for wages under pleaded guilty to the charge today before Superior Judge Finney and were given suspended sentences of 60 days in the county jail.

"Two of the group, E. C. Cruz and B. L. Lopez, pleaded not guilty and will stand trial. Miss Girardo declared that the laborers had threatened her with guns and clubs into writing a check for $300."

Not a Holdup.
At first, the master class press made this affair look like a case of robbery, but judging from the "suspended justice" handed out by the judge, that was not the case.

The workers acted a little rough as collectors of their hard-earned money—that's all, according to information gained here. The term "wages undue" really means, it has been learned that the "queen" expected a few days of grace before making out her check. But hunger has but little conscience—especially at times when the authorities and exploiters are violating every letter of the bill of rights.

DRAMA "By Request" New Nugent Comedy to Open at Windsor

THE first of George M. Cohan's new production of the season will open tonight at the Windsor Theatre. This is the Nugent comedy "By Request," and will have the following cast of players: the Nugents, father and son, Veree Teasdale, Grant Mills, Norma Lee (Mrs. Elliott Nugent), Harry McNaughton and Eleanor Williams. The play will be shown next week and the week after in Asbury Park and Long Branch, coming to Broadway sometime in August.

The Ring Lardner comedy, "Elmer the Great," another Cohan production, is also scheduled for tonight. It opens at the Blackstone in Chicago, with Walter Huston playing the principal role.

Cohan's musical show, "Batter Up!" will be placed in rehearsal sometime next month. Polly Walker, last seen in "The Merry Malones," will have an important role in the production.

Louise Groody, musical comedy star, will be one of the principal stars at the Palace this week. Others on the same bill include: Gertha Kalich, who will present "A Light From St. Agnes," a one-act drama written by Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske; Harland Dixon; Trahan and Wallace; George and Jack Dormonde; Ross Wyse, Jr., with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wyse; Ed and Jennie Rooney.

Vaudeville at the Hippodrome will include: Al K. Hall, supported by Fred Dale, Lila Bay and Teddy Andre; Carl McCullough; Naomi Ray and Eddie Harrison; The Manganen Troupe; Anita and Betty Case. The feature photoplay will be "Hellship Bronson" starring Noah Beery and Mrs. Wallace Reid.

ALEXIS DAVOR

Plays the principal role in "The End of St. Petersburg." The Sovkino film of the Russian Revolution is taxing the capacity of Hammerstein's Theatre at every performance.

Sylvia Clark will be seen on the stage of the Broadway Theatre beginning today. Bobbie Kuhn, 1st; George Broadhurst; Charles Harrison and Sylvia Dakin and Don Cummings are the other acts. The feature photoplay will be "No Other Woman," starring Dolores Del Rio and Don Alvarado.

Famine Sweeps Through Mine Districts As Suffering Grows More Acute

WORKERS' AID IS ONLY HOPE FOR COAL STRIKERS

Suffering Grows More Acute Daily

(Special to The DAILY WORKER.)
 PITTSBURGH, June 17. — Delegates and executives who attended the mine conference here Wednesday at which the call for a national miners' convention was drawn up, on returning to their home districts are faced first of all with the most acute problem of relief for the thousands of miners and their families now in the fourteenth month of the strike.

Appeals reaching the offices of the National Miners' Relief Committee are in most cases of the most urgent character picturing the most abject and acute suffering. A virtual famine is sweeping over the mine areas at a time when "prosperity" is the slogan of the big business interests of the country.

Those who issue this slogan and seek with it to continue their deception of the working class will, of course, do nothing to relieve the suffering of the miners, their wives and children. Only the workers can be looked to in this great extremity. The National Miners' Relief Committee of 611 Penn Ave. yesterday issued another urgent appeal for funds which means actually the saving of life in the mine districts.

MELON PICKERS STILL SUFFER

15 Cents a Crate Not Living Wage

(By a Worker Correspondent)
 LOS ANGELES, Cal. (By mail). — Cantaloupe pickers in Imperial Valley, Cal. continue to have considerable trouble with the authorities and the growers. The masters are jailing and fining the workers on various charges.

Francisco Hernandez, one of the 10 directors of the new Mexican labor union that made demands upon cantaloupe growers for increased wages for picking, has been sent to jail to serve a six-month suspended sentence, according to the Brawley News. The reason for the jailing, it is said to be that he failed to carry out the judge's order to shake the dust of the Imperial Valley off his feet and leave for a healthier climate.

Organized Power Opened Jail Doors.
 Seventy or more Mexican strikers were jailed about 3 weeks ago. Their bail was fixed at from $250 to $1000. The latter sum was demanded in at least five cases. The bail of four workers was reduced to $500. But the judge made an exception in the case of the one-armed interpreter-director, Hernandez. So, rather than stay in jail, he pleaded guilty of vagrancy and received a suspended sentence. Although the majority were unable to put up any bail, all the rest of the workers refused to plead guilty—and were released shortly after with the same status as they had before the strike.

Waiting for Exploiters.
 While the workers have to go through all kinds of hardship—including extreme heat, sometimes 110 degrees or more—the exploiters are sending their women and children into cooler places for a summer vacation. It is estimated that 9000 now are on their way to coast cities and mountain resorts, etc. The workers must sweat and slave and pay the bills of the parasites.

The last report reads: "El Centro, June 2. Following consultation in which Dist. Atty. Elmer Heard, Mexican Consul H. E. Torres, Dr. Louis Baloch of the state labor statistical bureau and Attorney Alfred Blaisdel, counsel for the defendants, participated, charges against 70 Mexican laborers were summarily dismissed in Imperial county court today.

"The Mexicans were arrested and charged with disturbing of the peace following recent strikes in the cantaloupe fields. The date of the trials of the men was set for June 6. Blaisdel had insisted on separate jury trials for the men."

"Aware of Opinions."

This letter, signed by Shapiro and Sons, 1333 Broadway, who have an agreement with the Sigman union, states that it is compelled to discharge the recipient, Martin Feldman, because the Sigman union insists upon it. The letter says, "You have been in our employ for a number of years and your services have been satisfactory." It says further, "We are fully aware of your opinions and sentiments." The employer concludes by saying that they have been forced to fire him because he refuses to register with the right wing.

NATIONAL MINERS' RELIEF WEEK TO BEGIN JUNE 25

Committee Urges All to Participate Here

As the fifteenth month of the soft coal miners' strike enters its last week, workers throughout New York will usher in National Miners' Relief Week with a mass turnout for house to house collections, mass distribution of special miners' bulletins and pamphlets, and throughout the city there will be miners' relief meetings, indoors and on the streets. From June 25 to July 1, inclusive, this relief work will mobilize as never before the great number of New York workers engaged in all industries for miners' relief work.

The week will wind up with a mass collection for miners' relief, on all the highways and transit lines and places of congregation on Saturday and Sunday, June 30 and July 1. Workers' organizations throughout the city which have before participated in the various tag day drives conducted by the National Miners' Relief Committee, will again, it is expected, enlist their memberships, and the members will prevail on their shopmates and friends to help. Other organizations, heretofore inactive, will participate.

All to Participate.

Many workers and organizations will be reached by the New York Working Women's Federation, which will have its second delegates' conference a few days prior to the opening of the relief week—on Thursday evening, July 21, at the Labor Temple. The main business of the conference will be miners' relief.

Plans Nearly Complete.

At the next federation meeting, which takes place Thursday night at the Labor Temple, 14th St. and Second Ave., plans will be completed for sending a delegate from the women's shops to the coal fields for a special relief conference there.

Nearly one hundred dollars were collected in the shops last week as the beginning of the new drive, which is to be intensified during the Mass Collection Week, June 25th to July 1st.

Included in the shop collections are $29.30 from twenty girls of Local 43, Millinery Hand Workers; $9.50 from workers in the Frank Kat Hat Co., 725 Broadway; $10 from progressive knitting workers; $6.25 collected by Ida Bernstein in a clothing shop; $2.70 from workers in the Family Dress Shop; and $3.00 from nine girl workers in a shop controlled by Local 91, I. L. G. W. U.

TWO FRUIT CLERK PICKETS SLUGGED BY BOSSES' THUGS

Cooperative Built Near Strike Area

Despite the vicious terror by police, thugs and injunctions continued in the attempt to break the militant strike of the retail fruit store clerks, the strikers are waging a vigorous battle. Two workers picketing the store of Oland and Weinberg, Claremont Parkway and Bathgate Ave., were brutally assailed by a squad of thugs led by Oland himself. Nathan Baumfeld was later treated for injuries in the head and M. Welshinsky for knife cuts in back. Police, though nearby, refused to take notice of the assault.

An effective answer was given by the union and its sympathizers to the attempt of the owner of the store at 933 Tremont Ave. to break the strike by an anti-picketing injunction. A workers' cooperative fruit and vegetable store was opened by the union sympathizers across the street at 936 Tremont Ave.

A general membership meeting of the entire union is to be held tomorrow night in Stuyvesant Casino, Second Ave. and Ninth St. A report of the strike situation will be rendered by the strike committee. The union urges all members to attend.

Norris Is Also Necessary to Capitalism

Senator Norris of Nebraska is a member of the party of finance-capital.

The republican party exists only to facilitate the business of government, the suppression of the masses, the exploitation and enslavement of the working class, the exploitation and expropriation of the farmers for the benefit of the bankers, and the furtherance of American imperialism by fire and sword (and diplomacy backed by the sword) throughout the world.

Norris is a member of the republican party.

The republican party has consistently nominated for president the candidate who most nearly represents "these ideals," as Mellon would say.

Yet Mr. Norris reacts to the Hoover nomination with these rude words:

"The rank and file of the great republican party will be disgusted and humiliated, but the power trust, as well as the Hoovers, the Daughertys, the Sinclairs, the Dohneys, the Falls, the Smoots, the Hayses, the Lenroths, the Fesses, the Moseses and the machine politicians everywhere, will be happy and delighted.

"If this program is endorsed at the polls, it will be the duty of the senate when it reconvenes in December to apologize to Power Trust Insull and his man from Illinois, for whose election he contributed more than $100,000 to seat Boss Vare, the representative of the Philadelphia political machine; to reinstate Daugherty; to apologize to Sinclair and Doheny and to pass a law returning to them the property which the Supreme Court of the United States said they had fraudulently obtained; to give a certificate of character to ex-Secretary Fall; to ask for the pardon of Miller, who has been sentenced to the penitentiary; to destroy the incriminating evidence which the investigation brought forth of the fraudulent profits of O'Neil and Stewart; to invite Blackmer to return from his hiding place in Europe and to receive him in good society with open arms; to condemn the Supreme Court of the United States for declaring that the Fall-Sinclair-Doheny deals were disgraceful and fraudulent; to call upon the Federal Trade Commission to cease its investigation wherein it is disclosing the sinister attacks upon our government by the power trust, and to ask forgiveness for all its activities in disclosing fraud and dishonesty in high official places."

Senator Norris is absolutely correct in branding Hoover with the mark of Teapot oil. But he makes some mistakes. "The rank and file of the great republican party" will not be "disgusted and humiliated." It will go to the polls and vote for Hoover.

Norris is also wrong in saying that the senate when it convenes after the election, will have to apologize to the Power Trust, to Boss Vare, Daugherty, Sinclair, Doheny, Fall, Miller, O'Neil, Blackmer, Stewart, etc., etc. The senate will not have to apologize to any of the crooks of Teapot Dome, for these gentlemen know perfectly well that the senate has done them no harm, but has protected them. None of them is in jail. The fire-works in the senate were unavoidable. If Mr. Vare was not seated in the senate, nevertheless he remains one of those who dictates the course of government and chooses the president.

But it is outrageous for Senator Norris to say that the senate will have to "call upon the federal trade commission to cease its investigation" of the Power Trust. This investigation is as necessary to the Power Trust as are the turbines of its power plants.

The Teapot Dome investigation ended with a slavish eulogy of the highest chief of oil-company corruption in the United States—John D. Rockefeller, Jr. It is immediately followed by the triumph of the same Coolidge-Hoover-Mellon gang in national politics as the representatives of "ideals."

Such senate investigations are necessary to preserve the illusions of the masses in the government of finance-capital.

Also Senator Norris is necessary. Senator Norris, member of the same republican party, is a supporter of capitalism, which means the exploitation of labor, the ruin of the farmers, the suppression and demoralization of the masses. Norris criticizes capitalism while supporting capitalism. By raving against "sinister attacks upon our government by the Power Trust," Mr. Norris, no less than Mr. Berger of the socialist party, helps to obscure the fact that the Power Trust is "our government." The merger of the government bureaucracy with the biggest banking interests together with the industrial trusts, including the Power Trust, is the United States government.

Norris is useful to finance-capital somewhat as canary birds are useful in mine-disasters. Canary birds, being very sensitive to gas, quickly give signs of the slightest danger.

The screeching of such men as Norris to the effect that capitalism can be made to reform itself so as to be beneficial to the farmers, keeps many thousands of farmers blindly trusting the capitalism which is strangling them.

And Norris is a member of the chief party of finance-capital.

Workers and farmers can make themselves effective in the fight against capitalism only by supporting the party that is opposed to capitalism.

There is only one party opposed to capitalism.

It is the Workers (Communist) Party.

Vote Communist.

But voting will not destroy capitalism.

Join the Workers (Communist) Party and fight capitalism not only during the period of elections, but at all times and on all fronts until it is overthrown.

CAMP FOR CHILDREN OF WORKERS OPENS SOON

Rowing, swimming and fishing are but a few of the vacation pastimes available to the children who will attend the Workers' International Relief Camp at Wingdale, New York. A sports director will supervise athletic sports and contests on a spacious athletic field. Evening camp-fire meets, presided by camp counselors, will be enlivened by songs, games, and discussions.

Hikes and field-trips will be the laboratories for nature study and wood-craft. The children will accumulate natural objects of interests in a special museum corner, and contribute to a wall bulletin especially devoted to science and invention.

Each group, coming to camp for two weeks, will be given opportunity to write stories, plays and articles for their edition of the camp magazine. Under trained instructors, they will also read and discuss juvenile literature depicting the life of the working class, or of historical interest. Plays, written or dramatized by themselves, will be presented.

American history and the struggle of the workers, their parents, under the capitalist system, will have important place in the educational program.

The low rate of $8 a week per child, barely covering the cost of the food, stamps this project as a real working-class camp. Yet the exceptional facilities and its location in White Rock mountains on a lake-site, offer vacation opportunities equalling and even surpassing those of high

HANDOUTS

The reputation of the New York police, known over the country for their brutality to strikers, especially women, will not be tarnished by the news that a Bronx detective shot a fifteen year old boy.

Any child can judge from the following paragraph in the Herald-Tribune whether it is the working man or the businessman who gets results from the senate:

"Discrimination against American interests seeking road building and drainage contracts in Greece may force the United States Senate to defer ratification of the proposed settlement of the Greek indebtedness to this country."

Real affection for condensed milk grows with the announcement that five escaping prisoners used a can of it in a stocking to knock down a deputy sheriff.

Unemployed workers should get a great deal of comfort from the A. F. of L. program submitted to the republican convention and which contains this battlecry in their behalf:

"Labor has repeatedly recommended that Congress and the government deal with the problem of unemployment in a practical and constructive way."

Biographical Note

The above honest looking chap is William Lorimer, "Blond Boss" of Illinois. Among the things he has done for his country is leading the Governor Len Small-Bill Thompson factions and depositing the results in the bank. He is noted for being one of the few expelled from the senate merely because he happened to have bought an election. That was in 1912. Today he is in Washington and claims he is working in the interests of a southern committee for the prevention of floods. It is said he will be able to pay his grocery bills during the present summer without difficulty.

A new analysis of the farm crisis is contained in the words of Professor Franklin H. Giddings of Columbia University, who says that the reason the young farm boys are leaving the rural districts for the cities is due to the lack of rural doctors. It is much more liable to be due to the presence of them.

Workers who look to the church for anything except entertainment should know that Department of Research of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ has just issued a bulletin in which it approves the plan of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in closing many of its mines and throwing thousands of workers out of jobs.

250 in Southern Silk Mill Go Out on Strike

Two hundred fifty workers in the Schwardenbach, Huber Company silk mill at Covington, Va., have struck against a wage cut and importation of northern labor, according to reports from Covington.

Child Welfare

Western Australia has a child-welfare department whose functions include the supervision of children placed in orphanages or industrial schools, boarded out with foster parents, or on probation from the children's courts; control of the placement of children for adoption, the payment of mothers' aid, and to unmarried mothers, and investigation of complaints with regard to ill-treatment of children. Children in institutions are required to attend school up to the age of 14, and are then trained for domestic or farming and placed in positions under supervision.

National Nominating Convention

By JAY LOVESTONE
Editorial Note—We print here with the closing speech delivered by Comrade Lovestone at the conclusion of the National Nominating Convention of the Workers (Communist) Party. It is a summary and estimate of the Convention's deliberations and actions. It was delivered on May 27.

Let me try to sum up the last two eventful days to you delegates and workers, who have had the very good fortune to attend and participate in the deliberations of the greatest Communist convention ever held in the United States.

I have attended many conventions, Republican and Democratic, as a reporter for the DAILY WORKER, and Communist Party and Socialist Party conventions as a delegate. I have never yet witnessed so genuine, so stirring, so inspiring a scene as the one in which you comrades demonstrated your loyalty to the cause of the working class, demonstrated when the standard bearers of Communism in America were chosen by you today.

Achievements of the Convention.
Before the delegates depart, they should have a clear understanding of some of the achievements of this convention and of some of the questions this convention has answered, not only for the state and fraternal delegations, not only for our Party as a whole, but for the workers and the exploited farming masses of this country.

First of all, we have a good Communist platform—the best Communist platform that our Party has had, a Communist platform on which we can appear with pride, with confidence, with great determination to go forward towards victory.

Second, this convention serves as a splendid basis, a splendid center, to inspire, to mobilize our Party and the workers in the coming election campaign months.

Third, we have chosen sterling, model revolutionists, sterling, model standard-bearers. What more can we ask from a gathering of our Party?

Some Questions Answered
This convention has been a tremendous Communist success from every viewpoint. This convention has cleared up certain questions, I believe, for all of us. I believe this convention has answered four main questions.

Can Communism grow in America?
Do we not have to answer that question for you comrades and delegates here. I think that the way this convention was conducted, the enthusiasm, the spirit, the militancy, the vigor, the determination—this is the proof that Communism can grow and will grow in the United States. (Applause.)

Our Party represents the interests of the whole working class. Our Party has to date attracted to its banner, primarily the most exploited section of the working class. This happens to be largely the foreign-born workers. We are not ashamed of the foreign-born workers, we are proud of them, for it is they who have helped to build the railroads, build the ships, build the factories, which we will take back for the whole working class. (Applause.)

This convention disproves one of the lies, one of the slanders of the bourgeoisie, who say that we are not able to attract native American workers. The native American workers gathered here in our Party convention are as native as there are in the whole country. We are all workers regardless of whether we were born by accident in America or came here by choice.

Our Party is not a Party East of Chicago. Our Party is a National Party from Maine to Texas, from California to Massachusetts. (Applause.)

Constructive Force.
Communism is shown by this convention as the most constructive force in the working class, despite the calumnies of the Socialist Party and trade union bureaucracy and other enemies of the working class. Any movement which starts as a movement of social progress, goes forward when it works hand in hand with the Communists. But when it deserts and attacks the Communists, and rejects the Communist leadership, it goes down.

Look at the ex-nationalist movement in China. Fifteen months ago the Chinese national movement swept terror into the hearts of the American, British, Japanese and other imperialists. Remember when our Chinese Party was the brains and heart of the leadership of the then advancing Nationalist forces. Eighteen months ago, the British imperial lion was shuddering and we did not know whether the tail was wagging the lion or vice-versa. Today the imperialists are able to insult, bully, cajole and smash at will the front of the betrayer Chiang Kai-shek. The Chinese National movement is down and out because it has deserted the Communist leadership and has become the henchman of the agents of the counter-revolution. Keep in mind the different treatment accorded to the Chinese masses when the Hankow concession was redeemed from the British plunderers and the recent massacre by the Japanese imperialists at Tsinan-Fu.

Socialist "Victory."
All the reward that the German workers got from the social-democratic leadership was the Dawes plan—the Dawes chain. This is the bitter fruit of the Socialist victory in Germany.

In Italy, where the Communists were defeated, we have bloody Fascism.

In the Soviet Union, where the Communists won, and where they kept the leadership and power, we have the only workers' and farmers' government in the world. (Applause.)

We say to the capitalists of this country that this convention proves very definitely that we in this country have made a good start towards a national election campaign, towards pushing forward working class victory in America. The lessons and experiences learned and lived through by the workers of China, Germany, Italy, the Soviet Union, are bound to hold true for the workers of the United States.

It is not an accident that we have with us here delegations of miners from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Where were the miners' delegations at the Socialist Party convention? The only miner at the Republican convention will be John L. Lewis. The only miner at the Democratic Convention will be William Green. The miners who are worth while are coming our way. (Applause.)

as the Republican Convention is concerned? The paltry few that may be around this Wall Street gathering are misleaders of the Negro masses and even these are segregated because of their color. In the Democratic convention, the only welcome the Negro might get is the welcome of a lynching party. The Socialist Party? It had only one, and that a misled Negro delegate.

The character of our Negro delegation is a tribute to the fact that the Communist Party is the only one that is ready to fight for the Negroes as well as for the other exploited and oppressed. (Applause.) The most significant step in the history of our Party since its inception is the determination to go South, and to begin the difficult and dangerous task of smashing the solid South. Our Party aims not only to stop lynching, but to punish effectively the lynchers and to destroy the whole lynch system. Our Party hails and welcomes the Negroes. We are of them and for them. (Applause.)

The farmers: We have here dirt farmers. Senator Capper, a multi-millionaire newspaper owner among farmers, is the best farmer the Republican Party convention will have. There probably will be a little less wealthy farmers at the Democratic convention. The agricultural workers, together with the exploited farming masses, will yet be aroused to a mass struggle against the enemies of the workers in the cities, who are their enemies also.

Nor is it an accident that the Haitians, the Chileans, the Peruvians, the colonial and semi-colonial masses—have sent delegates to this convention. We are their Party.

Working Class Traditions.

And it is not an accident that our Party is the inheritor of the best traditions of the American working class. Our working class has some splendid traditions—the traditions of Haymarket, the traditions of heroic strike struggles, the best of the traditions of every struggle and movement for the enhancement of social progress. We have inherited the best that was in anarchism, the best that was in syndicalism, the best that there was in the whole Socialist Party. The spirit of Ruthenberg and Debs and Haywood, the spirit of the Haymarket martyrs, the spirit of our dead leaders, and the spirit of vigorous youth coming forward, are ours today. Here is the best proof that our Party has inherited all that has been and that is most worth while in the American working class.

Last but not least, this convention has answered the question whether our Party will participate successfully in the election campaign. We, in splitting from the old Socialist Party, spurned and spat upon, reacted bitterly against the old parliamentary fakery and cretinism of the Hillquits and Bergers. In this wholesome reaction, we developed certain dangerously wrong syndicalist ideas and attitudes. This convention deals a mortal blow to these mis-conceptions. Our delegates are going back to act as Leninists in this election campaign without socialist illusions and without syndicalist fears—in the most brutal, the most powerful, capitalist country. (Applause.)

On to Work and Fight!
You must go back to work. Work, work and fight! We must get on the ballot. To our Party the campaign for getting on the ballot must serve as a means of acquainting with Communism, of inspiring, of educating new thousands of working and farming masses. To Communists, getting on the ballot is an entirely different proposition from what we knew it to be and what it still is in the Socialist Party. The fight to get on the ballot should enable us to spread our ideas more widely, to distribute our literature more effectively, and to win new masses to our ranks.

We must do the small, the little things, the dirty insignificant, menial work from the very bottom. Nothing is unimportant. Even the most minute matters—this detail here and another detail there must be properly and promptly handled. You must become leaders in the Party work, in the coming campaign.

Destroy Lewis.

Our election campaign is not a separate campaign front our mining campaign. If we want to help save the miners, we must destroy Lewis. If we want to destroy the corrupt Lewis machine, we must work overtime to help the miners. The same principles must guide us in the needle trades and textile campaigns. The election campaign is tied up with the fight against unemployment, against the speed-up system, against company unionism, against the labor fakery, the Socialist Party bureaucracy, the imperialist war in Nicaragua, the fight for recognition of the Soviet Union. The election campaign is a unifying campaign. We count on you to carry it out in that way. We expect you to go back to your territory and to bring back enthusiasm. Nothing is more contagious than revolutionary enthusiasm. Spread the contagion of revolutionary enthusiasm, and our Party will move forward with gigantic strides.

The work of the convention speaks for itself. The election campaign affords us a fine opportunity to build the Party. Keep this in mind above all. Our Party is the only Party, the only organization of the working class which is growing today. You have a very fine start. We want you to keep up the good pace. This convention will help usher in a new and better day for our Party. This convention is a symbol of the fact that our Party is not only a propaganda organization, not only a Party of revolutionary agitation, but is the Party of revolutionary organization of the American working class. Today our Party is the dynamic force in the American working class.

I will close with these remarks. You have something to be proud of. You have participated in one of the greatest conventions of this Party of ours. To be a Communist is the highest honor, the greatest and noblest mark of distinction, that a worker can win—involving the most difficult task, the most arduous work. You are the front line fighters, the most advanced battalions of the workers. Communists must be worthy of this highest honor. We want you to be proud of our Party. We want you to fight for your Party, to love your Party, to build a bigger and better Communist Party. We know that you can, that you will do it, that you will work, that you will fight, and that we will take many a step to bring us nearer to victory for the cause of the Communist International in the United States—for the cause of the whole American working class and its allies in the decisive revolutionary battle against the Wall Street imperialists
