Then they were sent to the Secretary of Labor Davis, the head of the department which is supposed to 'protect" the workers and without consulting the strikers' committee he where would not rather have a proposod a "peace plan" to the strikers. The workers know already what et them from the bosses, thuge and this peace plan is, it's even worse than the bosses' proposal, and it means nothing more nor less than giving up the fight and accepting the bosses' conditions. So thru bitter experience the workers found out that the government is a strike breaking agency, a tool of the bosses, not only of the textile bosses but of all the capitalists of the country, of those barons who)wn the railroads, banks, mile, mines, actories, ships and all the wealth of the country.
